LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving services were held yesterday at Lappin's Hall, and at Trinity and Christ churches in the city. Rev. J. Sharp delivered the sermon at Lappin's Hall, to a large audience. The reverand gentleman preached from the text—"Thou, O Lord crownest the year with thy blessing." His remarks were well timed, practical and delivered in a forcible manner.

The appeal made by Rev. Mr. Kinney, for the suffering people of Kansas, was, for a short address, the most powerful and affecting specimen of eloquence we have ever listened to. The audience was profoundly impressed by it; and at its conclusion there were few dry eyes in that large assembly. A collection was taken up, and about $100 was realized, with the promise of additional amounts from those who were not prepared with funds, or who proposed to give provisions or clothing. A committee was appointed to take charge of the donations from this city and vicinity, consisting of Messrs. G. S. Strasberger, J. M. Burgess, J. M. Riker and J. P. Hoyt.

A CARD.—The Kansas relief committee appointed at Lappin's Hall, Nov. 29th, 1860 acknowledge the receipt of the following items: Cash $75,37.

F. Whitaker's order for goods, $10,00.

Two bushels white beans.

G. J. Kellogg's order for five bushels wheat.

One sack clothing by Rev. E. J. Goodspeed.

The committee would suggest to those who are willing to aid the sufferers in Kansas, that they do it as soon as possible, as we are anxious to forward it immediately. We will call for donations at any place in the city by notifying us, or either of us, through the post office or otherwise.

The receipt of all goods, money, &c., received by the committee will be acknowledged in the city papers.

The committee would say to their friends in the country who wish to donate grain and other bulky articles that they can leave them at the warehouse of J. S. Chapin, in this city.

G. S. STRASBERGER,
J. M. RIKER,
J. M. BURGESS,
JOHN P. HOYT,
Committee.

THE MIRROR.—Our readers will bear in mind that Waugh's Mirror of Italy is to be exhibited this evening at Lappin's Hall. This superb series of panoramic pictures have attracted large audiences wherever they have been on exhibition, and we have no doubt it will be greeted with a full house to-night. Everybody should see this magnificent work of art. Judging from the highly complimentary notices it has received from the press in other cities, it must be worthy the patronage of all our citizens. We hope no one will miss this rare chance of viewing the most beautiful painting of the most beautiful country in the world. To-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the Mirror will be exhibited to Ladies for 15 cents, and children for 10 cents. All the schools are to visit it. We have no doubt but what the hall will be crowded to-night. Go early to get a good seat. Doors open at 6 o'clock.

Two exhibitions on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week.

REMOVAL.

B. Bornheim will, in a few days, remove into one of the stores in Myer's new block, where he will be prepared to offer additional attention to his customers in the sale of the best stock of Clothing in Rock county.

A WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.—This morning about 8 o'clock, an alarm of fire was given, when it was found to proceed from an upper room in Doty's block, occupied by Daniel Mapes, and it was soon discovered that the wife of Mapes had been burned to death. She was found lying upon the floor with her clothes nearly burned from her, and her body badly burned. An investigation before a coroner's jury lead to the commital of Mapes for trial as implicated in her death. The most important testimony we understand to be that of Henry Groat, who ran into the building as soon as the alarm was given and found Mapes in the hall endeavoring to extinguish a bed quilt which was burning. Groat went after a pail of water, and when he returned, Mapes was standing before the door of his room holding a sheet before it. Mapes said nothing about the fire in his room or his wife burning, and after all the fire in the hall had been extinguished, Groat left the building without any knowledge of the scene transpiring in the room. Other testimony showed that Mapes was a quarrelsome man, and last evening endeavored to quarrel with his wife.

CONCERT LAST EVENING.—The concert, last evening, which closed the musical convention which has been in progress for several days, was one of unusual interest and excellence. The crowded attendance, the large choir of singers, the choice selection of pieces, and the manner of execution, combined to make this the most successful musical exhibition we recollect to have been ever given in the city. Without exception, all participating in it, deserve high commendation.

NEW GROCERY ESTABLISHMENT.—Messrs. S. H. Culver and A. K. Allen have opened an extensive stock of family groceries, in the store on the corner of Court and Main streets, opposite the American hotel. They have excellent facilities for purchasing goods, and being reliable and well known business men, they will doubtless receive a large trade. Mr. Allen has long been favorably known in this city as a family grocer, and under his administration every thing will be kept in tip-top order. Liberal prices will be paid for the produce of the country, and customers may depend at all times on fair and generous treatment from this new firm. We anticipate for them a large business, and are gratified at being able to welcome them to a place among the enterprising business men of our city.

DANE COUNTY TAX.—The county tax levied by the board of supervisors in Dane county is $28,000.

From the Southern Christmas.

Father's Growing Old, John.

Our father's growing old, John;
His eyes are growing dim;
And years are on his shoulders laid,
A heavy weight for him.
And you and I are young and hale,
And each a stalwart man,
And we must make his load as light
And easy as we can.

He used to take the brunt, John,
At the cradle and the plow,
And carried our porridge by the sweat,
That trickled down his brow;
Yet never heard we him complain,
Whate'er his toil might be,
Nor wanted e're a welcome seat,
Upon his solid knee.

And when our boy-strength came, John,
And sturdy grew each limb,
He brought us to the yellow field,
To share the toil with him.
But he went forward in the swath,
Tossing aside the grain,
Just like the plow that heaves the soil,
Or whips that sheer the main.

Now we must lead the van, John,
Through weather foul and fair,
And let the old man read and doze,
And sit his easy chair;
And he'll not mind it, John, you know,
At eve to tell us o'er
Those brave old days of British times,
Our grandsires and the war.

Yes; father's growing old, John,
His eyes are getting dim;
And mother's treading softly down
The deep descent with him.
But you and I are young and hale,
And each a stalwart man;
And we must make their path as smooth,
And level as we can.

POST OFFICES.—During the week ending Nov. 17th, inclusive, the following post offices were established in Wisconsin: Kirchane, Washington county, Wisconsin; Lake Five, Waukesha county, Wisconsin; Winshaw, Columbia county, Wisconsin.

During the same time the following office was discontinued: Yorkville, Dunn county Wisconsin.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,
BY
BUMP & GRAY,
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, November 30, 1860.

There has been no material change to note in the produce market for the past two days. Yesterday being Thanksgiving, buyers anticipated a dull day, but receipts of most kinds were good and prices moderately firm. Sales of about 4,000 bushels wheat at 67@70c for milling, and 62½@66 for shipping. Also, sales 75 head dressed hogs at a range of 4,75@5,00 for light and heavy.

To-day receipts of wheat were fully 5,000 bushels, which sold at yesterday's rates, the market closing however, with a downward tendency. Receipts of oats were light, not enough being in to supply the local demand; sales 100 bushels at 18@19c. Dressed hogs came forward freely, there being over 100 head on the market, and most of them choice heavy hogs; sales ranged at 5,25@5,56 for heavy and 4,75@5,00 light. No change in other produce.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—good to choice milling spring 67a70; fair to good dry shipping 62½a66; damp and grown 55a60.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount; and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

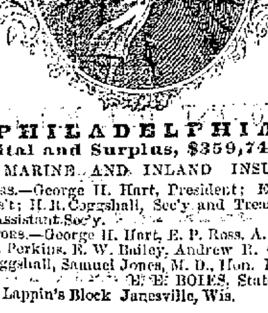

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

DAILY GAZETTE.

THANKSGIVING SERMON.

The following humorous production will be found peculiarly appropriate "on the present occasion." It appeared in the Boston Courier a number of Thanksgivings ago, but is still as good as new.

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth the bones."—Proverbs, xvii, 22.

The words of the wise man deserves especial regard, for this is an occasion, when it is good to be merry and wise. There are three hundred and odd days in the year besides this when a man may be melancholy without setting at naught the Governor's proclamation; but once in the year there is reason in feeling comfortable. The wise man is assuredly right in prescribing his medicine for unhappy mortals, sick of sin and the sea coal, the pinch in the money market, and the palpitation in the price of breadstuffs. Ho, every one who thirsteth for relief from the cares that cash is heirs to; come ye to Doctor Solomon, and take a little of his balm of Gilead in the shape of a merry heart. It is not to be "taken fasting," nor will it make any person quake with fear, though when taken it may be well shaken—not under the cork stopper of a wry face, but through the liberal tunnel of a broad grin. A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, and who does not wish to do good to himself with such pleasant kind of doctor's stuff. Verily the faculty in olden times were wiser in their generation than many of the modern M. D's.

There are three things under the sun, yea four, which, on a Thanksgiving day, are to be eschewed of men; the small soul of parsimony and the grumbling bowels of covetousness, the broken spirit of thankless repining, and the dry bones of cold uncharitableness. There is none of the right medicine in these drugs which deserve to be all pounded in the same mortar, and worked up into a blue pill of more infinitesimal littleness than any quantity yet prescribed in a homeopathic formula. But to-day we are bidden to be thankful; and whether we think of the bidding or not, it is to be hoped we can all find cause to offer thanks.

To be thankful this day is a duty both enjoined upon us by the executive authority and urged by our own feelings of what is fit and becoming. Thankfulness implies content—content indicates good humor—good humor is cheerfulness—and whoso has a cheerful heart has perforce a merry one. It is therefore as clear as preaching, that King Solomon and the governor are both of one mind as to the proper way of keeping Thanksgiving, and where is the son of man in this commonwealth, who will seek to controvert their joint authority? If there be any such dry bones of a doubter among us let him suck the wooden spoon of perversity, gnaw the dry drumstick of his own dogmatism, and sit down in skeptical sackcloth and ashes till his own sensible and rebellious stomack barks for dinner. Let him dine on a dish of doubts, and go to bed in the gruel of grumbling and groaning. But we hope there is none such.

So let us be reasonably thankful, and not unreasonable may we also be of a merry heart. Let those who are in health be thankful for their good case; and those who are out of health be thankful that they are no worse. Let those who are rich be thankful for their wealth; and those who are poor find cause for thankfulness in having so little to do with the root of all evil. Let old folks be thankful for their wisdom in knowing that young folks are fools; and let the young ones be even with them in thankfulness and good opinion by thinking the compliment back again. Let lean folks be thankful for their spare ribs; and let fat folks be thankful that they can laugh at the lean ones, and grow fatter and fatter every day. Let him who is in debt be thankful that he is not in limbo for it; let him who is out of debt do the same and call at our house and let us know what sort of a feeling it is. Let those who are in office put up all the thanks they can imagine that merit is at last rewarded; and let those who are out of office utter thanks also that the country does not insist upon their eating sour grapes. Let married folks be thankful for blessings both little and great; let bachelors and old maids be thankful for the privilege of knowing other folk's babies, and much good may it do them.

The words of a wise man are as plums in a pudding; they are yet to be swallowed with the gravity of discernment, and laid to the heart in the sweet sauce of quiet reflection. Let no man look upon a Turkey to-day and say, "This also is vanity!" What is the life of man without creature comfort, and the stomach of the son of man with no aid from the tin kitchen? Despise not the day of small things while there are pullets on the spit, and let every fowl have fair play between the jaws of thy philosophy.—Are not puddings made to be sliced and pie-crust to be broken? Go thy ways, then, according to good sense good cheer, good appetite, the Governor's proclamation and every other good thing under the sun; render thanks for all the good things of this life; and good cooking among the rest; eat, drink and be merry; make not a lean landation of the bounties of Providence, but let a lively gusto follow a long grace.

Feast thankfully and feast hopingly, feast in good will to all mankind, Grahamites included, feast in the full and joyous persuasion that while the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest, dinner time, pudding time and supper time are not likely to go out of fashion; feast with exulting confidence in the continuance of cooks, kitchens and orthodox expounders of Scripture and the constitution in our ancient, blessed and fat-sided commonwealth. Feast, in short, like a good Christian, proving all things, expecting all things, enjoying all things.

Let a good stomach for dinner go hand in hand with a good mind for sound doctrine. This day must thou be thankful; let thy thanks be accompanied by steadfast reliance upon the care of Providence, and let not thy wits run away upon sheep's trotters of doubt and mistrust. Nevertheless, be not stuffed up with conceit, but let the dressing of thy discourse be sage, and thy tongue be titillated with the sweet majoram of true wisdom.

"All flesh is grass;" whatever is sold in the shambles, they eat; but far be it from us to judge any man in meat or drink. We leave such matters to one's own bowels, bearing in mind that every vegetable and animal creature in the market is good and fit for the dish, if it be received with thanksgiving. Once more, therefore, we say, let the smoke of the right sacrifice ascend from every pewter platter; let every slice be flavored with the salt of sincere faith, the pepper of piety, and a liberal outpouring from the mustard-pot of mercy and alms-giving; let every morsel be chewed with the tooth of charity, swallowed in the goodly savor of a clear conscience, and washed down with the sweet cider of a single hearted satisfaction. Let both dinner and doctrine go straight to the heart, edifying both the inward and the outward man, and may we conclude the feast by picking up the crumbs of calm content.

MR. L. In fact it is the first and only bed spring I have been willing to use. Besides being exceedingly comfortable, it is at once simple, cleanly and durable. Its use, moreover, is condusive to health, as it sustains the mattrass in such a way as to expose its under surface at all times to a free circulation of air.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and, reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

DAILY GAZETTE.

THANKSGIVING SERMON.

The following humorous production will be found peculiarly appropriate "on the present occasion." It appeared in the Boston Courier a number of Thanksgivings ago, but is still as good as new.

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth the bones."—Proverbs, xvii, 22.

The words of the wise man deserve especial regard, for this is an occasion when it is good to be merry and wise. There are three hundred and odd days in the year besides this when a man may be melancholy without setting at naught the Governor's proclamation; but once in the year there is reason in feeling comfortable. The wise man is assuredly right in prescribing his medicine for unhappy mortals, sick of sin and the sea coal, the pinch in the money market, and the palpitation in the price of breadstuffs. Ho, every one who thirsteth for relief from the cares that cash is heirs to; come ye to Doctor Solomon, and take a little of his balm of Gilead in the shape of a merry heart. It is not to be "taken fasting," nor will it make any person quake with fear, though when taken it may be well shaken—not under the cork stopper of a wry face, but through the liberal tunnel of a broad grin. A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, and who does not wish to do good to himself with such pleasant kind of doctor's stuff. Verily the faculty in olden times were wiser in their generation than many of the modern M. D's.

There are three things under the sun, yea four, which, on a Thanksgiving day, are to be eschewed of men; the small soul of parsimony and the grumbling bowels of covetousness, the broken spirit of thankless repining, and the dry bones of cold uncharitableness. There is none of the right medicine in these drugs which deserve to be all pounded in the same mortar, and worked up into a blue pill of more infinitesimal littleness than any quantity yet prescribed in a homeopathic formula. But to-day we are bidden to be thankful; and whether we think of the bidding or not, it is to be hoped we can all find cause to offer thanks.

To be thankful this day is a duty both enjoined upon us by the executive authority and urged by our own feelings of what is fit and becoming. Thankfulness implies content—content indicates good humor—good humor is cheerfulness—and whoso has a cheerful heart has perforce a merry one. It is therefore as clear as preaching, that King Solomon and the governor are both of one mind as to the proper way of keeping Thanksgiving, and where is the son of man in this commonwealth, who will seek to controvert their joint authority? If there be any such dry bones of a doubter among us let him suck the wooden spoon of perversity, gnaw the dry drumstick of his own dogmatism, and sit down in skeptical sackcloth and ashes till his own sensible and rebellious stomack barks for dinner. Let him dine on a dish of doubts, and go to bed in the gruel of grumbling and groaning. But we hope there is none such.

So let us be reasonably thankful, and not unreasonable may we also be of a merry heart. Let those who are in health be thankful for their good case; and those who are out of health be thankful that they are no worse. Let those who are rich be thankful for their wealth; and those who are poor find cause for thankfulness in having so little to do with the root of all evil. Let old folks be thankful for their wisdom in knowing that young folks are fools; and let the young ones be even with them in thankfulness and good opinion by thinking the compliment back again. Let lean folks be thankful for their spare ribs; and let fat folks be thankful that they can laugh at the lean ones, and grow fatter and fatter every day. Let him who is in debt be thankful that he is not in limbo for it; let him who is out of debt do the same and call at our house and let us know what sort of a feeling it is. Let those who are in office put up all the thanks they can imagine that merit is at last rewarded; and let those who are out of office utter thanks also that the country does not insist upon their eating sour grapes. Let married folks be thankful for blessings both little and great; let bachelors and old maids be thankful for the privilege of knowing other folk's babies, and much good may it do them.

The words of a wise man are as plums in a pudding; they are yet to be swallowed with the gravity of discernment, and laid to the heart in the sweet sauce of quiet reflection. Let no man look upon a Turkey today and say, "This also is vanity!" What is the life of man without creature comfort, and the stomach of the son of man with no aid from the tin kitchen? Despise not the day of small things while there are pullets on the spit, and let every fowl have fair play between the jaws of thy philosophy.—Are not puddings made to be sliced and piecrust to be broken? Go thy ways, then, according to good sense good cheer, good appetite, the Governor's proclamation and every other good thing under the sun; render thanks for all the good things of this life; and good cooking among the rest; eat, drink and be merry; make not a lean laudation of the bounties of Providence, but let a lively gusto follow a long grace.

Feast thankfully and feast hopingly, feast in good will to all mankind, Grahamites included, feast in the full and joyous persuasion that while the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest, dinner time, pudding time and supper time are not likely to go out of fashion; feast with exulting confidence in the continuance of cooks, kitchens and orthodox expounders of Scripture and the constitution in our ancient, blessed and fat-sided commonwealth. Feast, in short, like a good Christian, proving all things, expecting all things, enjoying all things.

Let a good stomach for dinner go hand in hand with a good mind for sound doctrine. This day must thou be thankful; let thy thanks be accompanied by steadfast reliance upon the care of Providence, and let not thy wits run away upon sheep's trotters of doubt and mistrust. Nevertheless, be not stuffed up with conceit, but let the dressing of thy discourse be sage, and thy tongue be titillated with the sweet majoram of true wisdom.

"All flesh is grass;" whatever is sold in the shambles, they eat; but far be it from us to judge any man in meat or drink. We leave such matters to one's own bowels, bearing in mind that every vegetable and animal creature in the market is good and fit for the dish, if it be received with thanksgiving. Once more, therefore, we say, let the smoke of the right sacrifice ascend from every pewter platter; let every slice be flavored with the salt of sincere faith, the pepper of piety, and a liberal outpouring from the mustard-pot of mercy and almsgiving; let every morsel be chewed with the tooth of charity, swallowed in the goodly savor of a clear conscience, and washed down with the sweet cider of a single hearted satisfaction. Let both dinner and doctrine go straight to the heart, edifying both the inward and the outward man, and may we conclude the feast by picking up the crumbs of calm content.

Official Paper of the City.

Thanksgiving Day.

We are requeseed to say that the public services of the day for the union congregation will be held at Lappin's Hall, commencing at 11 o'clock A. M.

Rev. J. Sharp, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church, will preach the sermon, assisted in the accompanying services by the pastors of the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches. The musical convention now in session in this city under the direction of Prof. G. F. Root, numbering a hundred singers, will furnish the music and lead in the songs of praise.—Let the occasion be one on which our entire people shall express their gratitude to the great source of all blessings.

The Governor of the state, having called the attention of the people to the destitute and starving condition of the people of Kansas, that measures may be taken for their relief on thanksgiving day, we suggest that some action be had upon this occasion responsive to the recommendation of the executive. We believe there is a general desire on the part of our people to contribute, and a wish has been expressed by many that some person, or a committee, be appointed to receive donations and forward them to their proper destination. Perhaps it would not be inappropriate, as part of the services of the day, to make some such arrangement, as immediate relief is much needed, and we throw out the suggestion for the consideration of others.

The Musical Convention.

This convention now in session at Lappin's Hall in this city, is one of the largest ever held here. Over fifty gentlemen and about the same number of ladies are in constant attendance.

And what is gratifying, many of our citizens not heretofore indentified with the singers, but who have excellent voices, are attending this convention.

And the convention is not only a success in numbers, but in the quality of the voices of the gentlemen and ladies present, it is equal if not superior to any one ever held in this city.

Prof. Root commands universal admiration.

The convention closes its session with a concert Thursday evening, when we predict that Lappin's Hall will be filled to its utmost capacity.

Our citizens may be sure that there is a rich feast in store for them. Mrs. Matterson, one of the finest suprano singers of Chicago, is present and will take part in the concert.

It will be remembered that she was here last fall, and no person who heard her sing then, and who has the least appreciation of the "concert and harmony of sweet sounds" will fail to hear her again.

WHAT THE SLAVES THINK.—The St. Louis Democrat says the most tragic feature of the present southern agitation is the wide spread fear of slave insurrections. From the common epithet of "black," applied to the republican party, it is stated, negroes in some of the slave states have derived the impression that the black men of the north have obtained possession of the government, and are to inaugurate a policy of general emancipation of all the colored race.

As a matter of fact, no one is more directly responsible for the misapprehension in the south of the character and objects of the republican party than the democratic press of the north. To accomplish a party purpose they have habitually and knowingly misrepresented the republican party, and these misrepresentations have been received in full faith at the south, where republican papers are not allowed to circulate and where the utterance of republican sentiments is followed by expulsion from the state or mob violence. The very men who now in the north wish to be considered as "Union-savers," are the persons who have, to a great extent, caused the trouble that exists.

THE MISSISSIPPI FROZEN.—The Madison Patriot of yesterday says—"We have it on the authority of a conductor of a freight train on the M. & M. R. R. that the Mississippi river, which was open on last Friday at Prairie du Chien, was frozen over on Saturday so that teams were passing over it.—This appears a hard fact, especially when the main waters of the lakes in this vicinity are not yet covered with even a thin sheet of ice, but it is rendered probable by the water of the Mississippi being much shallower than that in our lakes, proper. It was also stated that the steamer Eagle was frozen in somewhere near Redwing."

MONETARY.—The bills of two more of the Illinois banks were thrown out at Chicago on Monday—the Grayville Bank and the Southern Bank at Grayville.

The stock market was drooping in New York yesterday.

MISSOURI STATE INTEREST.—The Missouri Republican says: "The treasurer of this state publishes that he will be prepared to pay the interest falling due on all the Missouri state bonds on the 1st of January next. This is timely notice, we apprehend, for all those who have persistently sought to depreciate the credit of this state, without any good reason for it, and now let them hold their peace."

BANKS THROWN OUT IN NEW YORK.—A slip from Adams's Chicago Bank Note Reporter says that the following banks are thrown out in New York:

Bank of Sing Sing, N. Y.
Bank of Commerce, Erie, Pa.
Bank of Crawford county, Pa.
Bank of Lawrence county, late Bank of Newcastle, Pa.
Bank of Upper Canada.

PRICE OF EXCHANGE.—In Milwaukee eastern exchange was raised to 5 per cent. last Monday. In Chicago, the same day, the price was 7 per cent. In St. Louis financial matters are almost as unsettled, and exchange as high as in Chicago.

Official State Canvass.

MADISON, Nov. 27, 1860.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Herewith I send you a synopsis of the result of the official canvass, made this day, by the state board of canvassers:

The total number of votes polled in this state on the 6th day of November was 152,180, of which

Lincoln electors received	86,110

This result I think will satisfy the most sanguine republican, as this state was, in the early part of the canvass, classified—if not for Douglas—as doubtful. The returns were in from every county in the state.—Winnebago, Kewaunee and Chippewa were received this morning, in season to be canvassed.

In the first congressional district the entire vote cast was 29,714.

Secession at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24, 1860.

The state of feeling here can only be known by conversing with the leading citizens, and listening to the discussions of the influential and prominent business men of Washington. The few days that I have spent here have fully satisfied me that the dispatches which have filled the newspapers daily, and are sent from this city for the purpose of creating and keeping up an excitement, greatly exaggerate, and in most instances, misrepresent the feelings of the inhabitants of Washington. Aside from a few restless southern hot-spurs who are employed in the departments, and who are fearful of being dragged away from the teat they have been sucking with much relish for the last eight years, I have not yet found a single resident of this city who favors secession or disunion, or who does not condemn the course of the south, or admit that the election of Mr. Lincoln is legal or constitutional.

No one, either here or elsewhere, pretends that the republicans, as a party, have taken any steps, or even that they design inaugurating any measures to abolish slavery in the states or to interfere in any way with either the master or the slave in the states. True, unscrupulous members of the democratic party have made this gross charge against the republicans, but the only proof adduced is the libels of these malignant falsifiers, while against these absurd slanders stands the platform of the republican party and the recorded and oft-repeated opinions of Mr. Lincoln.

It is said by men here who know, that the states now threatening to withdraw from the Union are deeply in debt—that financially they are worse off than the west was in 1857, and that they have adopted this method as the readiest and surest way of paying their bills.

It is further alleged that the men in the south most clamorous to dissolve their connection with the Union, are advocates of the revival of the African slave trade, so that the price of slaves may be reduced, and they, like their neighbors, become owners of laborers. It must be remembered that at least eight-tenths of the voters of the south do not now own slaves, and hence their anxiety to level up, by a larger supply than the breeding states offer. To these men the owners of slaves yield, fearing their suffrages may be concentrated against them and their property be not only onerously taxed, but they themselves be swept from places of honor and profit.

Still, I am confident that there will be no secession. The only men who have really resigned are senator Hammond and representative Bonham, of South Carolina.—Neither Gov. Brown or Jeff. Davis, of Mississippi, have yet resigned. It is rumored here, to-day, that Mr. Keitt will refuse to retain his seat at the short session of the present Congress; but there are so many reports afloat here that no confidence can be placed in them.

The idea of South Carolina seceding alone is simply preposterous. With a population less than that of Brooklyn, she has not inhabitants enough to defend her borders from unfriendly incursions, much less to "conquer a peace." It has been truly said that "God makes nations, not man." Therefore the Palmetto State cannot become a nation. The friends of the Union are in the majority not only in all the border slave states, but, as time will show, all over the south. Virginians here, of acknowledged ability and ample means of information, unhesitatingly aver that of the whole vote given in that state at the recent Presidential election, all who voted for Bell and Douglas and two-thirds of those who voted for Breckinridge are opposed to secession for the mere reason of Mr. Lincoln's election.

There are but few members or senators here yet. The work on the Capitol is progressing finely. True to their instincts, and as ever faithful to their friends, the democrats in charge of the capitol extension are liberally patronizing their old friends. It is said that the mirrors that are now here and are designed for the Senate wing of the capitol, cost the snug little sum of $1,000,000! The other purchases are on the same scale of liberality; and the repairs in the House are of a high-priced character.

A DOUBTING THOMAS.—Judge Douglas was in Mobile on Thursday last. The Advertiser tells what he thought of the result of the election. It says:

"The Judge places little confidence in the reported news from Illinois. He says it will take two or three days to hear from Egypt, where the great democratic strength lies. He is quite confident that both Illinois and Indiana have gone for him. We sincerely hope that he is correct in this."

His "confidence" will give way when he hears from "the land of Canaan, sweet Canaan." The darkness of Egypt could not save him.

Sure to make you come up to the scratch—The itch.

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.

The Arabia with dates to the 18th, arrived at Halifax last evening.

The City of Washington was at Queenstown on the 16th.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The Prince of Wales' fleet had arrived. Details of return voyage show that the fleet experienced head winds and bad weather during the entire voyage. The vessels were within a day's sail of England on the 6th, when a heavy gale prevented any further progress. They had only another week's provisions on board, and the royal party for the last few days lived on salt and preserved provisions.

The party landed all well, and the Prince reached Windsor Castle on the evening of the 15th.

The return of the Prince is made the theme of congratulatory editorials by the press generally, and the reiteration of warm compliments to the American people.

The Empress Eugenia arrived in London on the 14th inst., and remained two days in the strictest incognito. She will make a visit to Scotland in the hope of improving her health.

The Bishop of Worcester is dead.

The minimum rate of discount was raised by the Bank of England on the 15th to 6 per cent., although no gold had been drawn that day, and none since. This movement was telegraphed to the Bank of France, and the contemplated additional withdrawal of more gold from the Bank of England by that bank was suspended.

Australian gold to the amount of £575,000 arrived on the 16th, which was immediately bought for the Bank of France, and this temporarily prevented any further withdrawal from the Bank of England.

There was more confidence on Friday, and the funds slightly improved—closing firm. The discount market continued to present an anxious and unsettled appearance, and no business had been done below the bank minimum. In many cases 6 per cent. was the lowest rate that would be taken. Three months paper was not negotiable. The rate for short loans, government security, was about 4 per cent.

Paris advices say that although the pressure for gold on the Bank of France continued, that establishment had decided not to raise its rate of discount above 4½ per cent. for the present. It was thought the Bank of France would continue to obtain gold supplies from England, but the Times' city article maintains that this need excite no uneasiness, although the drain on the Bank of France, since the statement, is said to have been immense. The shares of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada realized 3 per cent. on the 10th.

FRANCE.—There were rumors of ministerial changes rife. It was reported that the commissioner who figured in the Savoy negotiations was to be minister of the interior. The commercial treaty of France and England was completed at Paris on the 16th and received final signatures. Mr. Cobden was said to be completely prostrated by labors.

ITALY.—There was no event of importance. There was a report that a conspiracy had been discovered at Gaeta against Francis II. Two officers and two men were shot.

The official Piedmontese Gazette of the 15th says that the Neapolitans under Gen. Sabren had proposed to Fanto the surrender of the Neapolitan troops who remained outside of Gaeta, consisting of 10 battalions of chasseurs and rejected propositions. After a combat on the 12th the Bourbon troops re-entered Gaeta and the Sardinians took up fresh positions around the town. The garrison of Gaeta consisted of 18 battalions, but a despatch announces that two merchant steamers carrying French colors had left Gaeta with troops supposed for Civita.

LIVERPOOL.—Breadstuffs had a declining tendency. R. S. & Co. report flour dull and offered at a reduction. Wheat dull and declined 1a2c.

HALIFAX, Nov. 27.

The following are the very latest advices by the Arabia.

LONDON, Saturday eve., 27th.

The pressure for money has slightly relapsed.

LIVERPOOL, SUNDAY, Nov. 18.—Breadstuffs quiet and unchanged. Provisions dull.

AUSTRIA.—An attempt has been made to introduce arms into Hungary. English vessels engaged in the enterprise. Austrian preparations for war continuing at Mantua.

CHINA.—The Paris Moniteur asserts that the latest telegram from Sir Hope Grant fully authorises the hope that a recourse to arms will not be necessary in China.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.

The census bureau is in receipt of returns from all the states, South Carolina included. In a few scattered districts, however, the returns are withheld for correction. The returns from the territory of New Mexico are now on their way to Washington, and those from Utah and Kansas have only in part come to hand. In all cases, one excepted, laws have heretofore been passed to extend the time of taking the census. As to the present one, they have been made in a shorter period than ever before, but not in time to enable the secretary of the interior to communicate them to congress at the commencement of the session, with the enumeration of the inhabitants and the new representative apportionment.

The steam sloop of war Brooklyn is daily expected at Norfolk, with the Cherokee commissioners.

Among the latest arrivals of congressmen is Senator Davis, of Mississippi. Secretary Cobb was absent from the cabinet to-day, on account of sickness.

The President's annual message has been placed in the printer's hands.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.

Counterfeit 10's on the Andover Bank of Massachusetts are in circulation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.

Several of our most prominent breadstuff dealers publish a statement showing stock, wheat and flour now on hand in this city.—Flour, 760,388 barrels; wheat, 5,853,749 bushels. They estimate the city consumption of flour at 550,000 to 650,000 barrels.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 27.

All the South Carolina members of the federal house of representatives have determined to go to Washington and resign there. This course is taken in order more conveniently to confer with representatives from other southern states. The governor's message was sent to the legislature to-day. Its tenor was about the same as the synopsis sent yesterday in advance of delivery.

In relation to federal affairs he says it is now too late to receive propositions for a conference and the state would be wanting in self respect after having deliberately decided upon her course to entertain any proposition looking to a continuance in the present union.

DETROIT, Nov. 28.

The Free Press this morning figures up sixty-seven lives lost on the lakes during the gale of Saturday and Sunday, and other vessels were out which have not yet been heard from.

MARINE DISASTERS—APPALLING LOSS OF LIFE.—The following memoranda of the disasters of the storm upon the Lakes on Sunday, have been compiled from various sources:

Propeller Decotah, Captain I. B. Cross, bound up with full cargo and double crew. Ashore twenty miles from Buffalo, all hands reported lost.

Propeller Forest Queen ashore and gone to pieces at Bailey harbor. Propeller Jersey City reported foundered near Buffalo. All hands lost.

Schooner Com. Maxwell ashore at Sugar Loal Point. But one of the crew saved.

Schooner J. S. Newhouse is ashore near Goodrich, C. W. Schooner Sacramento ashore near Port Colborne. Schooner Tornado, with cargo of corn from Chicago, wrecked near Kingston Creek; all lost; vessel gone to pieces. Schooner Enterprise, ashore at Long Point. Schooner Arctic, ashore at Presque Isle. Schooner Schallawag, ashore near Port Stanley, gone to pieces. Schooner Con. Chase, of Chicago, and N. P. Goodell of Buffalo, were towed into the river Sarnia, completely covered with ice, with every man on the Goodell more or less frozen. Brig Curtiss Mann, from Chicago to Buffalo, ashore near Goderich, C. W., crew safe; vessel total loss.

FROM LAKE ONTARIO.—Schooner Forest, frozen in near Trenton, in Bay Quinte.—Cascade driven to Sacketts Harbor, disabled, loaded with wheat. Jeannie P. Mack, ashore, cargo lost, 10 miles above Port Colborne, Lake Erie. Mary Levina, ashore, Clermont Bay, lumber. Schooner Comet, grain, from Youngstown, ashore near Big Sodus. Propeller Coaster, gone ashore eight miles below Stone Mills, Canada, gone to pieces. Schooner Augusta Handy, in South Bay, canvas and boat gone, and leaking badly. Seven vessels ashore between Kingston and Sackett's Harbor. Schooner Edith, of Oakville, beached one mile south of Stony Point light; no cargo. Schooner Omar Pasha, cargo wheat, from Toronto; both vessels went to pieces; crews saved except Omar Pasha.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is suggested that the telegraphic operators at Charleston dare not, for fear of jeopardizing their personal safety, send any thing but the most ultra secession reports to the north. Any developement of a counter sentiment by the telegraph, would be the signal of a funeral from the telegraph office.

A glutton at Oyster Point, Connecticut, ate a bushel of oysters, last week, as fast as an expert negro could open them.

TO CLEAN THE EYE OF DUST.—When the eye is irritated by dust or intrusive articles of any kind, the sufferer invariably shuts and rubs his eyes, and not unfrequently the removal of the irritating cause becomes more difficult. The proper practice is to keep the eye open, as if staring; a sort of rotary movement of the ball takes place, the eye becomes covered with water, the particle is gradually impelled to the corner of the eye, and is there floated out, or can be easily removed, without any of the disagreeable consequences that attend shutting and rubbing.

TO KEEP ICE FROM WINDOWS.—We find the following directions to keep the ice from show windows going the rounds: Take an ordinary paint brush or sponge, and rub over the glass once or twice a day a little alcohol, and it will keep the glass as free from ice as in the middle of summer, and will give as good a polish as can be got in any other way.

OUTRAGE.—A captain of a ship at Mobile being heard to express his preference for Lincoln in that city a few days since, was ordered to leave the city immediately. In the north a disunionist or secessionist may blow until he is tired out. Such is the difference between liberty and slavery, one rejoices in the light of free discussion—the other fears, shuns and hates it.

The Nebraska legislature, at its next session, will stand three republican majority in the council, and eleven in the assembly, giving fourteen on joint ballot. This is much better than was at first expected.

So far as heard from, the new elected house of representatives of the Kansas territorial legislature, stands 26 republicans to 10 democrats. One or two districts remain to be heard from.

JACKSON'S RECONCILIATION WITH BENTON.—But the most remarkable case of reconciliation was that which occurred between Gen. Jackson and Col. Thomas H. Benton, whose brother Jesse's bullet Gen. Jackson still carried about with him, embedded in the flesh of his left arm. "Well," exclaimed Col. Benton, in one of his letters of this period, "how many changes in this life! General Jackson is now sitting in the chair next to me. There was a vacant one next to me, and he took it for the session. Several senators saw our situation and offered mediation. I declined it upon the ground that what had happened could neither be explained, recanted nor denied.—After this we were put upon the same committee. Facing me one day, as we sat in our seats, he said to me, "Colonel, we are on the same committee; I will give you notice when it is necessary to attend." (He was chairman and had the right to summon us.) I answered, "General, make the time to suit yourself; it will be convenient for me to attend at any time." In committee we did business together just as other persons. After that, he asked me how my wife was, and I asked him how his was. Then he called and left his card at my lodgings—Andrew Jackson, for Colonel Benton and lady; forthwith I called at his and left mine—Colonel Benton, for General Jackson.—Since then we have dined together at several places, and yesterday at the President's. I made him the first bow; he held forth his hand, and we shook hands. I then introduced him to my wife, and thus civil relations are perfectly established between us. Jackson has gained since he has been here, by his mild and conciliatory manner."

SOLD.—Under a foreclosure on the 2d mortgage bonds the Racine and Mississippi R. R. was formerly sold at action by Deputy Sheriff Taylor, the other day, to Jessup & Co., N. Y., for the sum of $210,000.—We suppose this auction, if it has any force at all, cuts off every cent of claims the old stockholders might have, and leaves them without redress.—Racine Advocate.

A Thanksgiving Song.

Come uncles and cousins, come nieces and aunts;
Come nephews and brothers,—no won'ts and no can'ts;
Put business, and shopping, and school books away;
The year has rolled round—it is Thanksgiving Day!

Come home from the college, ye ringlet haired youth;
Come home from your factories, Ann, Katy and Ruth!
From the anvil, the counter, the farm, come away;
Home, home with you, HOME—it is Thanksgiving Day.

The table is spread, and the dinner is dressed—
The cooks and the mothers have all done their best;
No caliph of Bagdad e'er saw such display,
Or dreamed of a treat like a Thanksgiving Day.

Pies, puddings, and custards, pigs, oysters and nuts;
Come forward and seize them, without ifs and buts;
Bring none of your slim little appetites here—
Thanksgiving Day comes only once in a year.

Now children revisit the darling old place;
Now brothers and sisters, long parted, embrace;
The family ring is united once more,
And the same voices shout at the old cottage door.

The grandfather smiles on the innocent mirth,
And blesses the Power that has guarded his hearth.
He remembers no trouble—he feels no decay—
He thinks his whole life has been a Thanksgiving Day.

The praise for the past and the present we sing,
And trustful await what the future may bring;
Let doubt and repining be banished away,
And the whole of our life be a Thanksging Day.

☞ COUGHS.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid

New York Life Insurance Company,

DAILY GAZETTE.

THANKSGIVING SERMON.

The following humorous production will be found peculiarly appropriate "on the present occasion." It appeared in the Boston Courier a number of Thanksgivings ago, but is still as good as new.

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth the bones."—Proverbs, xvii, 22.

The words of the wise man deserves especial regard, for this is an occasion when it is good to be merry and wise. There are three hundred and odd days in the year besides this when a man may be melancholy without setting at naught the Governor's proclamation; but once in the year there is reason in feeling comfortable. The wise man is assuredly right in prescribing his medicine for unhappy mortals, sick of sin and the sea coal, the pinch in the money market, and the palpitation in the price of breadstuffs. Ho, every one who thirsteth for relief from the cares that cash is heirs to; come ye to Doctor Solomon, and take a little of his balm of Gilead in the shape of a merry heart. It is not to be "taken fasting," nor will it make any person quake with fear, though when taken it may be well shaken—not under the cork stopper of a wry face, but through the liberal tunnel of a broad grin. A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, and who does not wish to do good to himself with such pleasant kind of doctor's stuff. Verily the faculty in olden times were wiser in their generation than many of the modern M. D's.

There are three things under the sun, yea four, which, on a Thanksgiving day, are to be eschewed of men; the small soul of parsimony and the grumbling bowels of covetousness, the broken spirit of thankless repining, and the dry bones of cold uncharitableness. There is none of the right medicine in these drugs which deserve to be all pounded in the same mortar, and worked up into a blue pill of more infinitesimal littleness than any quantity yet prescribed in a homeopathic formula. But to day we are bidden to be thankful; and whether we think of the bidding or not, it is to be hoped we can all find cause to offer thanks.

To be thankful this day is a duty both enjoined upon us by the executive authority and urged by our own feelings of what is fit and becoming. Thankfulness implies content—content indicates good humor—good humor is cheerfulness—and whoso has a cheerful heart has perforce a merry one. It is therefore as clear as preaching, that King Solomon and the governor are both of one mind as to the proper way of keeping Thanksgiving, and where is the son of man in this commonwealth, who will seek to controvert their joint authority? If there be any such dry bones of a doubter among us let him suck the wooden spoon of perversity, gnaw the dry drumstick of his own dogmatism, and sit down in skeptical sackcloth and ashes till his own sensible and rebellious stomack barks for dinner. Let him dine on a dish of doubts, and go to bed in the gruel of grumbling and groaning. But we hope there is none such.

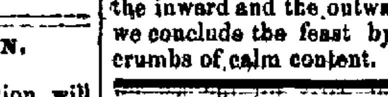

So let us be reasonably thankful, and not unreasonable may we also be of a merry heart. Let those who are in health be thankful for their good case; and those who are out of health be thankful that they are no worse. Let those who are rich be thankful for their wealth; and those who are poor find cause for thankfulness in having so little to do with the root of all evil. Let old folks be thankful for their wisdom in knowing that young folks are fools; and let the young ones be even with them in thankfulness and good opinion by thinking the compliment back again. Let lean folks be thankful for their spare ribs; and let fat folks be thankful that they can laugh at the lean ones, and grow fatter and fatter every day. Let him who is in debt be thankful that he is not in limbo for it; let him who is out of debt do the same and call at our house and let us know what sort of a feeling it is. Let those who are in office put up all the thanks they can imagine that merit is at last rewarded; and let those who are out of office utter thanks also that the country does not insist upon their eating sour grapes. Let married folks be thankful for blessings both little and great; let bachelors and old maids be thankful for the privilege of knowing other folk's babies, and much good may it do them.

The words of a wise man are as plums in a pudding; they are yet to be swallowed with the gravity of discernment, and laid to the heart in the sweet sauce of quiet reflection. Let no man look upon a Turkey today and say, "This also is vanity!" What is the life of man without creature comfort, and the stomach of the son of man with no aid from the tin kitchen? Despise not the day of small things while there are pullets on the spit, and let every fowl have fair play between the jaws of thy philosophy,—Are not puddings made to be sliced and piecrust to be broken? Go thy ways, then, according to good sense good cheer, good appetite, the Governor's proclamation and every other good thing under the sun; render thanks for all the good things of this life; and good cooking among the rest; eat, drink and be merry; make not a lean laudation of the bounties of Providence, but let a lively gusto follow a long grace.

Feast thankfully and feast hopingly, feast in good will to all mankind, Grahamites included, feast in the full and joyous persuasion that while the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest, dinner time, pudding time and supper time are not likely to go out of fashion; feast with exulting confidence in the continuance of cooks, kitchens and orthodox expounders of Scripture and the constitution in our ancient, blessed and fat-sided commonwealth. Feast, in short, like a good Christian, proving all things, expecting all things, enjoying all things.

Let a good stomach for dinner go hand in hand with a good mind for sound doctrine. This day must thou be thankful; let thy thanks be accompanied by steadfast reliance upon the care of Providence, and let not thy wits run away upon sheep's trotters of doubt and mistrust. Nevertheless, be not stuffed up with conceit, but let the dressing of thy discourse be sage, and thy tongue be titillated with the sweet majoram of true wisdom.

"All flesh is grass;" whatever is sold in the shambles; they eat; but far be it from us to judge any man in meat or drink. We leave such matters to one's own bowels, bearing in mind that every vegetable and animal creature in the market is good and fit for the dish, if it be received with thanksgiving. Once more, therefore, we say, let the smoke of the right sacrifice ascend from every pewter platter; 'let' every slice be flavored with the salt of sincere faith, the pepper of piety, and a liberal outpouring from the mustard-pot of mercy and almsgiving; let every morsel be chewed with the tooth of charity, swallowed in the goodly savor of a clear conscience, and washed down with the sweet cider of a single hearted satisfaction. Let both dinner and doctrine go straight to the heart, edifying both the inward and the outward man, and may we conclude the feast by picking up the crumbs of calm content.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PROCLAMATION.

THANKSGIVING.

It is right that all Christian nations should praise the Ruler of the Universe for His wonderful goodness to the children of men.

It is eminently proper that the people of this country should praise Him, for they are favored above all others, in their form of government, devised, under God, by the wisdom of their forefathers—in freedom to do all things that are right—in health, peace, prosperity—in a wonderful process of development which has already placed them in the foremost rank of the nations of the world.

The people of Wisconsin have extraordinary reasons for thankfulness the present year. The peaceful labors of the husbandmen have been blessed in a most remarkable degree, and their barns and storehouses are overflowing with the abundance of the harvest. Surely, "He findeth them with the finest of the wheat." Health has prevailed throughout our borders. Good order has everywhere reigned. The blessings of free education have been extended. All classes and professions have pursued their avocations with greater or less measure of success, under the protection of just and equal laws If afflictions have come upon, or calamities overtaken us, the benign influences of Christian benevolence have hastened to dry the tears and minister to the wants of the bereaved.

Following time-honored custom, it is my privilege again to invite the people of Wisconsin to the observance of their annual festival of Joy and gladness, and I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 29th day of November, 1860, as a day of THANKSGIVING and praise to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe.

And I recommend that the people of the state, on that day, laying aside the cares of life, gather together in their solemn assemblies, and in manner and form approved by their consciences, return their thanks to God for His great goodness to us as citizens of a country blessed, beyond others, with civil and religious Liberty, Educational Institutions, Peace and Prosperity; and especially for His overflowing blessings to the people of this Commonwealth, in Abundant Harvests, Health, Social Comforts and Privileges, and for all that contributes to their happiness and well being as communities and individuals.

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless his name."

When the feast is spread, and the table groans with fatness, let not the poor be forgotten, nor any man found begging bread.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my [L. S.] name, and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed.

Done at Madison, the 23th day of October, A. D. 1860

By the Governor, ALEX. W. RANDALL.

EDWARD ILLSLEY, Asst. Sec'y of State.

Post Office Notice.

THANKSGIVING.—This office will close on Thanksgiving Day, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and open again at 4 o'clock, P. M.

E. MILLER, P. M.

Janesville, Nov. 28, 1860.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES ON THANKSGIVING-DAY.—Trinity church will be opened for morning service at 10½ o'clock, with a sermon by the Rector, Rev. H. W. Beers.

CITY TAXES.—An important question in relation to our city tax was argued in the circuit court, before Judge Noggle, this morning. On the application for a decree upon the delinquent list, J. H. Knowlton, on behalf of A. Hyatt Smith and several others, resisted the application, assigning an insufficiency of the notice of application, and objecting to the legality of the tax on the grounds that certain railroad property was excepted from taxation, and that the provisions of the city charter were violated in raising the full amount allowed to the school fund in addition to the school orders put into judgment. The notice of application was published on the 16th inst., and it is contended that the law requires ten days notice, excluding both the day of publication and the first day of the term of court. Isaac Woodle, as city attorney, appeared for the city, denying the validity of the objections raised to the application. After argument, Judge N. reserved his decision, in order to allow the city attorney time to submit some authorities in the case.

NEW FAMILY GROCERY.—Mr. William Andrew has taken the store formerly occupied by Mr. Thurston on Main street, where he will keep a choice selection of family groceries and fruits. Mr. Andrew's long experience in the trade will eneble him to furnish good articles to his customers at a fair price. We bespeak for him a share of public patronage.

☞ The store of Scofield & Co. will be closed to-morrow 29th inst. from 9½ o'clock A. M. till 6 P. M.

SHIPMENTS FROM BRODHEAD.—During the month of October 39,101 bushels of wheat were shipped from Broadhead.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Office hours to-morrow (Thanksgiving day) from 8 to 11 A. M.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.—There will be no paper issued from this office to-morrow.

VARIETY STORE.—Almost every body in Rock county knows V. Jonanneault, or "the Frenchman" as he is familiarly called, who keeps a store in the Hyatt House block, where "every thing" can be had. He has recently been adding to his stock of toys and fancy goods, preparatory to the great rush for presents during the holidays. His store has become one of the "institutions" of the city, and is overflowing with nearly all sorts of goods, for old and young. Give him a call, and you will be sure to find something that you or the "little folks at home" will want.

A DOG PANIC.—They are having a mad dog panic at Waukau. Last week several cows and hogs were bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, and some of the animals have since shown unmistakeable signs of hydrophobia. The people of Waukau have slaughtered all the dogs in the place.—Ripon Times.

A GRAVE JOKE.—H. M. Ridenhower, Esq. the "lone star" of Johnson county, Illinois, in 1856—the only man in the county who voted for Fremont—has just been elected coroner of the county by forty votes—the democracy forgetting to vote for that office. A correspondent informs us that this result exasperates the Douglasites of old Johnson worse than the election of Lincoln. We understand that Ridenhower proposes to hold his first inquest on the remains of democracy in Illinois.—Chicago Tribune.

ALL KINDS OF JUSTICE'S BLANKS For Sale at this Office.

An Admirable Exhibition.

Next Friday and Saturday evening, and Saturday afternoon, there will be exhibited at Lappin's Hall, Waugh's Mirror of Italy—a panorama embracing over two hundred views of the Lakes, Cities, fine Palaces and Cathedrals, of northern, central and southern Italy, and including a view of an eruption of Vesuvius. As Italy has been and is now the centre of political interest in Europe, the exhibition of this Panorama is especially timely, as it illustrates the theatre of the late Franco-Sardinian campaign. As a work of art, it has received very high praise. Elihu Burritt, the "learned Blacksmith," says—"We have seen a good many panoramas and dioramas in England, France and Germany, but we never saw anything equaling Waugh's gorgeous world of temples, churches, baths, fountains, monuments, cascades, the "sheen of silver waters," the red and quivering glare of volcanoes, fleets of ships on the sea, gondolas, and picturesque populations, costumes and customs. As a work of art, nothing of the kind exhibited in London comes up to it. Albert Smith's tour through Holland, up the Rhine, and his view of Mount Blanc, are lame in artistry and contracted in extent, compared with these apparently life-size painting of Italian description." John Neal, the author, says "there are scenes in this panorama to which words can do no justice. The glorious coloring of earth and sky, the wondrous blending of tints, which makes an Italian sunset so beautiful, must be seen to be appreciated.—Through two hundred chosen views—through northern, southern and central Italy, from Como on through Venice,—the spectator is led by magic charm to St. Peter's, to Naples and Vesuvius."

The editor of the Utica Herald, who has just returned from a visit to Italy, fully endorses the correctness of Waugh's paintings. He says—"It affords us great pleasure to bear testimony to the fidelity of the scenes depicted to nature. Nothing can be more graphic—nothing can be more true to the life. The splendid Panorama of Italian scenery and Italian life is made to move before the eyes of delighted spectators. The memorable objects of interest—Pisa, with its leaning tower; Florence, with its incomparable environs; Rome, with its majestic ruins, and splendid palaces and churches; Naples, with its lovely bay and enchanting surroundings; Vesuvius, and Pompeii, and Herculaneum—are represented with remarkable success." From such recommendations as these, we are led to expect a pleasant and profitable hour is following the artist in his Italian tour. For the afternoon exhibition, the doors will be opened at two o'clock, and the panorama move at three. For the evening exhibitions, the doors will open at seven and the panorama move at eight o'clock.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, NOVEMBER 28, 1860.

Receipts of Wheat were still larger to-day than yesterday, there being fully 7,000 bushels on the market, and milling grades, owing to the large supply, were 3a5 cents lower. Shipping spring, however, was firm at yesterday's full rates. The market closed with good demand at 68a70c for good to very choice milling spring, and 62½a67c for shipping. Barley is extremely dull.—No notice sales of choice samples to-day at 35a50c, and common as low as 20c. Dressed Hogs came forward finely, and prices were if anything a little lower than yesterday. Sales of about 100 head at 5,15a6,50 for heavy to extra heavy, and 4,25a5,00 for light. No change in other produce.

The latest advices from the lake shore, eastern and foreign markets were rather unfavorable, but it seems to produce but little effect in our markets, as most if not all of the operators are buying for winter storage. The probability is that prices will not vary much from present rates during the winter.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—good to choice milling spring 68a70; fair to good dry shipping 52½a57; dump and green 55a60.

OATS—rather dull at 15a17c per bushel.

RYE—declined to 33a35c per 60 lbs.

CORN—old shelled 30a32c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

BARLEY—good quality 30a35c per 50 lbs., common 20a25c.

TIMOTHY SEED—in good demand at 1,60a1,80 per 46 lbs.

DRESSED HOGS—heavy to extra heavy 5,15a5,60, light 4,25a5,00.

POTATOES—plenty at 15a20c for good to choice ones.

BUTTER—wanted at 15a17c good to choice quality.

EGGS—scarce at 12a13c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 4½a5; Dry, flint, 9all.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 6½a7; chickens, 5a6

SHEEP PELTS—range from 25c@1,00 each.

Official Paper of the City.

Thanksgiving Day.

We are requeseed to say that the public services of the day for the union congregation will be held at Lappin's Hall, commencing at 11 o'clock A. M.

Rev. J. Sharp, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church, will preach the sermon, assisted in the accompanying services by the pastors of the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches. The musical convention now in session in this city under the direction of Prof. G. F. Root, numbering a hundred singers, will furnish the music and lead in the songs of praise.—Let the occasion be one on which our entire people shall express their gratitude to the great source of all blessings.

The Governor of the state, having called the attention of the people to the destitute and starving condition of the people of Kansas, that measures may be taken for their relief on thanksgiving day, we suggest that some action be had upon this occasion responsive to the recommendation of the executive. We believe there is a general desire on the part of our people to contribute, and a wish has been expressed by many that some person, or a committee, be appointed to receive donations and forward them to their proper destination. Perhaps it would not be inappropriate, as part of the services of the day, to make some such arrangement, as immediate relief is much needed, and we throw out the suggestion for the consideration of others.

The Musical Convention.

This convention now in session at Lappin's Hall in this city, is one of the largest ever held here. Over fifty gentlemen and about the same number of ladies are in constant attendance.

And what is gratifying, many of our citizens not heretofore indentified with the singers, but who have excellent voices, are attending this convention.

And the convention is not only a success in numbers, but in the quality of the voices of the gentlemen and ladies present, it is equal if not superior to any one ever held in this city.

Prof. Root commands universal admiration.

The convention closes its session with a concert Thursday evening, when we predict that Lappin's Hall will be filled to its utmost capacity.

Our citizens may be sure that there is a rich feast in store for them. Mrs. Matterson, one of the finest suprano singers of Chicago, is present and will take part in the concert.

It will be remembered that she was here last fall, and no person who heard her sing then, and who has the least appreciation of the "concert and harmony of sweet sounds" will fail to hear her again.

WHAT THE SLAVES THINK.—The St. Louis Democrat says the most tragic feature of the present southern agitation is the wide spread fear of slave insurrections. From the common epithet of "black," applied to the republican party, it is stated, negroes in some of the slave states have derived the impression that the black men of the north have obtained possession of the government, and are to inaugurate a policy of general emancipation of all the colored race.

As a matter of fact, no one is more directly responsible for the misapprehension in the south of the character and objects of the republican party than the democratic press of the north. To accomplish a party purpose they have habitually and knowingly misrepresented the republican party, and these misrepresentations have been received in full faith at the south, where republican papers are not allowed to circulate and where the utterance of republican sentiments is followed by expulsion from the state or mob violence. The very men who now in the north wish to be considered as "Union-savers," are the persons who have, to a great extent, caused the trouble that exists.

THE MISSISSIPPI FROZEN.—The Madison Patriot of yesterday says—"We have it on the authority of a conductor of a freight train on the M. & M. R. R. that the Mississippi river, which was open on last Friday at Prairie du Chien, was frozen over on Saturday so that teams were passing over it.—This appears a hard fact, especially when the main waters of the lakes in this vicinity are not yet covered with even a thin sheet of ice, but it is rendered probable by the water of the Mississippi being much shallower than that in our lakes, proper. It was also stated that the steamer Eagle was frozen in somewhere near Redwing."

MONETARY.—The bills of two more of the Illinois banks were thrown out at Chicago on Monday—the Grayville Bank and the Southern Bank at Grayville.

The stock market was drooping in New York yesterday.

MISSOURI STATE INTEREST.—The Missouri Republican says: "The treasurer of this state publishes that he will be prepared to pay the interest falling due on all the Missouri state bonds on the 1st of January next. This is timely notice, we apprehend, for all those who have persistently sought to depreciate the credit of this state, without any good reason for it, and now let them hold their peace."

BANKS THROWN OUT IN NEW YORK.—A slip from Adams's Chicago Bank Note Reporter says that the following banks are thrown out in New York:

Bank of Sing Sing, N. Y.
Bank of Commerce, Erie, Pa.
Bank of Crawford county, Pa.
Bank of Lawrence county, late Bank of Newcastle, Pa.
Bank of Upper Canada.

PRICE OF EXCHANGE.—In Milwaukee eastern exchange was raised to 5 per cent. last Monday. In Chicago, the same day, the price was 7 per cent. In St. Louis financial matters are almost as unsettled, and exchange as high as in Chicago.

Official State Canvass.

MADISON, Nov. 27, 1860.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Herewith I send you a synopsis of the result of the official canvass, made this day, by the state board of canvassers:

The total number of votes polled in this state on the 6th day of November was 152,180, of which

Lincoln electors received	86,110

Breckinridge "	888
Bell " "	161
	152,180
Lincoln's majority over Douglas,	21,089
Lincoln's majority over all,	20,040

This result I think will satisfy the most sanguine republican, as this state was, in the early part of the canvass, classified—if not for Douglas—as doubtful. The returns were in from every county in the state.—Winnebago, Kewaunee and Chippewa were received this morning, in season to be canvassed.

In the first congressional district the entire vote cast was 29,714.

Potter received	16,197
Arnold "	13,508

	29,714
Potter's majority over Arnold,	2,689

In the second congressional district the entire vote cast was 59,242.

Secession at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24, 1860.

The state of feeling here can only be known by conversing with the leading citizens, and listening to the discussions of the influential and prominent business men of Washington. The few days that I have spent here have fully satisfied me that the dispatches which have filled the newspapers daily, and are sent from this city for the purpose of creating and keeping up an excitement, greatly exaggerate, and in most instances, misrepresent the feelings of the inhabitants of Washington. Aside from a few restless southern hot-spurs who are employed in the departments, and who are fearful of being dragged away from the teat they have been sucking with much relish for the last eight years, I have not yet found a single resident of this city who favors secession or disunion, or who does not condemn the course of the south, or admit that the election of Mr. Lincoln is legal or constitutional.

No one, either here or elsewhere, pretends that the republicans, as a party, have taken any steps, or even that they design inaugurating any measures to abolish slavery in the states or to interfere in any way with either the master or the slave in the states. True, unscrupulous members of the democratic party have made this gross charge against the republicans, but the only proof adduced is the libels of these malignant falsifiers, while against these absurd slanders stands the platform of the republican party and the recorded and oft-repeated opinions of Mr. Lincoln.

It is said by men here who know, that the states now threatening to withdraw from the Union are deeply in debt—that financially they are worse off than the west was in 1857, and that they have adopted this method as the readiest and surest way of paying their bills.

It is further alleged that the men in the south most clamorous to dissolve their connection with the Union, are advocates of the revival of the African slave trade, so that the price of slaves may be reduced, and they, like their neighbors, become owners of laborers. It must be remembered that at least eight-tenths of the voters of the south do not now own slaves, and hence their anxiety to level up, by a larger supply than the breeding states offer. To these men the owners of slaves yield, fearing their suffrages may be concentrated against them and their property be not only onerously taxed, but they themselves be swept from places of honor and profit.

Still, I am confident that there will be no secession. The only men who have really resigned are senator Hammond and representative Bonham, of South Carolina.—Neither Gov. Brown or Jeff. Davis, of Mississippi, have yet resigned. It is rumored here, to-day, that Mr. Keitt will refuse to retain his seat at the short session of the present Congress; but there are so many reports afloat here that no confidence can be placed in them.

The idea of South Carolina seceding alone is simply preposterous. With a population less than that of Brooklyn, she has not inhabitants enough to defend her borders from unfriendly incursions, much less to "conquer a peace." It has been truly said that "God makes nations, not man." Therefore the Palmetto State cannot become a nation. The friends of the Union are in the majority not only in all the border slave states, but, as time will show, all over the south. Virginians here, of acknowledged ability and ample means of information, unhesitatingly aver that of the whole vote given in that state at the recent Presidential election, all who voted for Bell and Douglas and two-thirds of those who voted for Breckinridge are opposed to secession for the mere reason of Mr. Lincoln's election.

There are but few members or senators here yet. The work on the Capitol is progressing finely. True to their instincts, and as ever faithful to their friends, the democrats in charge of the capitol extension are liberally patronizing their old friends. It is said that the mirrors that are now here and are designed for the Senate wing of the capitol, cost the snug little sum of $1,000,000! The other purchases are on the same scale of liberality; and the repairs in the House are of a high-priced character.

A DOUBTING THOMAS.—Judge Douglas was in Mobile on Thursday last. The Advertiser tells what he thought of the result of the election. It says:

"The Judge places little confidence in the reported news from Illinois. He says it will take two or three days to hear from Egypt, where the great democratic strength lies. He is quite confident that both Illinois and Indiana have gone for him. We sincerely hope that he is correct in this."

His "confidence" will give way when he hears from "the land of Canaan, sweet Canaan." The darkness of Egypt could not save him.

Sure to make you come up to the scratch—The itch.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.

The Arabia with dates to the 18th, arrived at Halifax last evening.

The City of Washington was at Queenstown on the 16th.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The Prince of Wales' fleet had arrived. Details of return voyage show that the fleet experienced head winds and bad weather during the entire voyage. The vessels were within a day's sail of England on the 6th, when a heavy gale prevented any further progress. They had only another week's provisions on board, and the royal party for the last few days lived on salt and preserved provisions.

The party landed all well, and the Prince reached Windsor Castle on the evening of the 15th.

The return of the Prince is made the theme of congratulatory editorials by the press generally, and the reiteration of warm compliments to the American people.

The Empress Eugenia arrived in London on the 14th inst., and remained two days in the strictest incognito. She will make a visit to Scotland in the hope of improving her health.

The Bishop of Worcester is dead.

The minimum rate of discount was raised by the Bank of England on the 15th to 6 per cent., although no gold had been drawn that day, and none since. This movement was telegraphed to the Bank of France, and the contemplated additional withdrawal of more gold from the Bank of England by that bank was suspended.

Australian gold to the amount of £575,000 arrived on the 16th, which was immediately bought for the Bank of France, and this temporarily prevented any further withdrawal from the Bank of England.

There was more confidence on Friday, and the funds slightly improved—closing firm. The discount market continued to present an anxious and unsettled appearance, and no business had been done below the bank minimum. In many cases 6 per cent. was the lowest rate that would be taken. Three months paper was not negotiable. The rate for short loans, government security, was about 4 per cent.

Paris advices say that although the pressure for gold on the Bank of France continued, that establishment had decided not to raise its rate of discount above 4½ per cent. for the present. It was thought the Bank of France would continue to obtain gold supplies from England, but the Times' city article maintains that this need excite no uneasiness, although the drain on the Bank of France, since the statement, is said to have been immense. The shares of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada realized 3 per cent. on the 10th.

FRANCE.—There were rumors of ministerial changes rife. It was reported that the commissioner who figured in the Savoy negotiations was to be minister of the interior. The commercial treaty of France and England was completed at Paris on the 16th and received final signatures. Mr. Cobden was said to be completely prostrated by labors.

ITALY.—There was no event of importance. There was a report that a conspiracy had been discovered at Gaeta against Francis II. Two officers and two men were shot.

The official Piedmontese Gazette of the 15th says that the Neapolitans under Gen. Sabren had proposed to Fanto the surrender of the Neapolitan troops who remained outside of Gaeta, consisting of 10 battalions of chasseurs and rejected propositions. After a combat on the 12th the Bourbon troops re-entered Gaeta and the Sardinians took up fresh positions around the town. The garrison of Gaeta consisted of 18 battalions, but a despatch announces that two merchant steamers carrying French colors had left Gaeta with troops supposed for Civita.

LIVERPOOL.—Breadstuffs had a declining tendency. R. S. & Co. report flour dull and offered at a reduction. Wheat dull and declined 1a2c.

HALIFAX, Nov. 27.

The following are the very latest advices by the Arabia.

LONDON, Saturday eve., 27th.

The pressure for money has slightly relapsed.

LIVERPOOL, SUNDAY, Nov. 18.—Breadstuffs quiet and unchanged. Provisions dull.

AUSTRIA.—An attempt has been made to introduce arms into Hungary. English vessels engaged in the enterprise. Austrian preparations for war continuing at Mantua.

CHINA.—The Paris Moniteur asserts that the latest telegram from Sir Hope Grant fully authorises the hope that a recourse to arms will not be necessary in China.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.

The census bureau is in receipt of returns from all the states, South Carolina included. In a few scattered districts, however, the returns are withheld for correction. The returns from the territory of New Mexico are now on their way to Washington, and those from Utah and Kansas have only in part come to hand. In all cases, one excepted, laws have heretofore been passed to extend the time of taking the census. As to the present one, they have been made in a shorter period than ever before, but not in time to enable the secretary of the interior to communicate them to congress at the commencement of the session, with the enumeration of the inhabitants and the new representative apportionment.

The steam sloop of war Brooklyn is daily expected at Norfolk, with the Cherokee commissioners.

Among the latest arrivals of congressmen is Senator Davis, of Mississippi. Secretary Cobb was absent from the cabinet to-day, on account of sickness.

The President's annual message has been placed in the printer's hands.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.

Counterfeit 10's on the Andover Bank of Massachusetts are in circulation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.

Several of our most prominent breadstuff dealers publish a statement showing stock, wheat and flour now on hand in this city.—Flour, 760,388 barrels; wheat, 5,853,749 bushels. They estimate the city consumption of flour at 550,000 to 650,000 barrels.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 27.

All the South Carolina members of the federal house of representatives have determined to go to Washington and resign there. This course is taken in order more conveniently to confer with representatives from other southern states. The governor's message was sent to the legislature to-day. Its tenor was about the same as the synopsis sent yesterday in advance of delivery.

In relation to federal affairs he says it is now too late to receive propositions for a conference and the state would be wanting in self respect after having deliberately decided upon her course to entertain any proposition looking to a continuance in the present union.

DETROIT, Nov. 28.

The Free Press this morning figures up sixty-seven lives lost on the lakes during the gale of Saturday and Sunday, and other vessels were out which have not yet been heard from.

MARINE DISASTERS—APPALLING LOSS OF LIFE.—The following memoranda of the disasters of the storm upon the Lakes on Sunday, have been compiled from various sources:

Propeller Decotah, Captain I. B. Cross, bound up with full cargo and double crew. Ashore twenty miles from Buffalo, all hands reported lost.

Propeller Forest Queen ashore and gone to pieces at Bailey harbor. Propeller Jersey City reported foundered near Buffalo. All hands lost.

Schooner Com. Maxwell ashore at Sugar Loaf Point. But one of the crew saved.

Schooner J. S. Newhouse is ashore near Goodrich, C. W. Schooner Sacramento ashore near Port Colborne. Schooner Tornado, with cargo of corn from Chicago, wrecked near Kingston Creek; all lost; vessel gone to pieces. Schooner Enterprise, ashore at Long Point. Schooner Arctic, ashore at Presque Isle. Schooner Schallawag, ashore near Port Stanley, gone to pieces. Schooner Con. Chase, of Chicago, and N. P. Goodell of Buffalo, were towed into the river Sarnia, completely covered with ice, with every man on the Goodell more or less frozen. Brig Curtiss Mann, from Chicago to Buffalo, ashore near Goderich, C. W., crew safe; vessel total loss.

FROM LAKE ONTARIO.—Schooner Forest, frozen in near Trenton, in Bay Quinte.—Cascade driven to Sacketts Harbor, disabled, loaded with wheat. Jeannie P. Mack, ashore, cargo lost, 10 miles above Port Colborne, Lake Erie. Mary Levina, ashore, Clermont Bay, lumber. Schooner Comet, grain, from Youngstown, ashore near Big Sodus. Propeller Coaster, gone ashore eight miles below Stone Mills, Canada, gone to pieces. Schooner Augusta Handy, in South Bay, canvas and boat gone, and leaking badly. Seven vessels ashore between Kingston and Sackett's Harbor. Schooner Edith, of Oakville, beached one mile south of Stony Point light; no cargo. Schooner Omar Pasha, cargo wheat, from Toronto; both vessels went to pieces; crews saved except Omar Pasha.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is suggested that the telegraphic operators at Charleston dare not, for fear of jeopardizing their personal safety, send any thing but the most ultra secession reports to the north. Any developement of a counter sentiment by the telegraph, would be the signal of a funeral from the telegraph office.

A glutton at Oyster Point, Connecticut, ate a bushel of oysters, last week, as fast as an expert negro could open them.

TO CLEAN THE EYE OF DUST.—When the eye is irritated by dust or intrusive articles of any kind, the sufferer invariably shuts and rubs his eyes, and not unfrequently the removal of the irritating cause becomes more difficult. The proper practice is to keep the eye open, as if staring; a sort of rotary movement of the ball takes place, the eye becomes covered with water, the particle is gradually impelled to the corner of the eye, and is there floated out, or can be easily removed, without any of the disagreeable consequences that attend shutting and rubbing.

TO KEEP ICE FROM WINDOWS.—We find the following directions to keep the ice from show windows going the rounds: Take an ordinary paint brush or sponge, and rub over the glass once or twice a day a little alcohol, and it will keep the glass as free from ice as in the middle of summer, and will give as good a polish as can be got in any other way.

OUTRAGE.—A captain of a ship at Mobile being heard to express his preference for Lincoln in that city a few days since, was ordered to leave the city immediately. In the north a disunionist or secessionist may blow until he is tired out. Such is the difference between liberty and slavery, one rejoices in the light of free discussion—the other fears, shuns and hates it.

The Nebraska legislature, at its next session, will stand three republican majority in the council, and eleven in the assembly, giving fourteen on joint ballot. This is much better than was at first expected.

So far as heard from, the new elected house of representatives of the Kansas territorial legislature, stands 26 republicans to 10 democrats. One or two districts remain to be heard from.

JACKSON'S RECONCILIATION WITH BENTON.—But the most remarkable case of reconciliation was that which occurred between Gen. Jackson and Col. Thomas H. Benton, whose brother Jesse's bullet Gen. Jackson still carried about with him, embedded in the flesh of his left arm. "Well," exclaimed Col. Benton, in one of his letters of this period, "how many changes in this life! General Jackson is now sitting in the chair next to me. There was a vacant one next to me, and he took it for the session. Several senators saw our situation and offered mediation. I declined it upon the ground that what had happened could neither be explained, recanted nor denied.—After this we were put upon the same committee. Facing me one day, as we sat in our seats, he said to me, "Colonel, we are on the same committee; I will give you notice when it is necessary to attend." (He was chairman and had the right to summon us.) I answered, "General, make the time to suit yourself; it will be convenient for me to attend at any time." In committee we did business together just as other persons. After that, he asked me how my wife was, and I asked him how his was. Then he called and left his card at my lodgings—Andrew Jackson, for Colonel Benton and lady; forthwith I called at his and left mine—Colonel Benton, for General Jackson.—Since then we have dined together at several places, and yesterday at the President's, I made him the first bow; he held forth his hand, and we shook hands. I then introduced him to my wife, and thus civil relations are perfectly established between us. Jackson has gained since he has been here, by his mild and conciliatory manner."

SOLD.—Under a foreclosure on the 2d mortgage bonds the Racine and Mississippi R. R. was formerly sold at action by Deputy Sheriff Taylor, the other day, to Jessup & Co., N. Y., for the sum of $210,000.—We suppose this auction, if it has any force at all, cuts off every cent of claims the old stockholders might have, and leaves them without redress.—Racine Advocate.

A Thanksgiving Song.

Come uncles and cousins, come neices and aunts;
Come nephews and brothers,—no won'ts and no can'ts;
Put business, and shopping, and school books away;
The year has rolled round—it is Thanksgiving Day!

Come home from the college, ye ringlet haired youth;
Come home from your factories, Ann, Katy and Ruth!
From the anvil, the counter, the farm, come away;
Home, home with you, HOME—it is Thanksgiving Day.

The table is spread, and the dinner is dressed—
The cooks and the mothers have all done their best;
No caliph of Bagdad e'er saw such display,
Or dreamed of a treat like a Thanksgiving Day.

Pies, puddings, and custards, pigs, oysters and nuts;
Come forward and seize them, without ifs and buts;
Bring none of your slim little appetites here—
Thanksgiving Day comes only once in a year.

Now children revisit the darling old place;
Now brothers and sisters, long parted, embrace;
The family ring is united once more,
And the same voices shout at the old cottage door.

The grandfather smiles on the innocent mirth,
And blesses the Power that has guarded his hearth.
He remembers no trouble—he feels no decay—
He thinks his whole life has been a Thanksgiving Day.

The praise for the past and the present we sing,
And trustful await what the future may bring;
Let doubt and repining be banished away,
And the whole of our life be a Thanksging Day.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper.—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be after knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.
Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.
Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and give me the pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is your headache?
Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.
Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists.—Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of headache.
Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headache will soon vanish away like snow in July.

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

All kinds of

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

Official Paper of the City.

Thanksgiving Day.

We are requessed to say that the public services of the day for the union congregation will be held at Lappin's Hall, commencing at 11 o'clock A. M.

Rev. J. Sharp, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church, will preach the sermon, assisted in the accompanying services by the pastors of the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches. The musical convention now in session in this city under the direction of Prof. G. F. Root, numbering a hundred singers, will furnish the music and lead in the songs of praise.—Let the occasion be one on which our entire people shall express their gratitude to the great source of all blessings.

The Governor of the state, having called the attention of the people to the destitute and starving condition of the people of Kansas, that measures may be taken for their relief on thanksgiving day, we suggest that some action be had upon this occasion responsive to the recommendation of the executive. We believe there is a general desire on the part of our people to contribute, and a wish has been expressed by many that some person, or a committee, be appointed to receive donations and forward them to their proper destination. Perhaps it would not be inappropriate, as part of the services of the day, to make some such arrangement, as immediate relief is much needed, and we throw out the suggestion for the consideration of others.

The Musical Convention.

This convention now in session at Lappin's Hall in this city, is one of the largest ever held here. Over fifty gentlemen and about the same number of ladies are in constant attendance.

And what is gratifying, many of our citizens not heretofore identified with the singers, but who have excellent voices, are attending this convention.

And the convention is not only a success in numbers, but in the quality of the voices of the gentlemen and ladies present, it is equal if not superior to any one ever held in this city.

Prof. Root commands universal admiration.

The convention closes its session with a concert Thursday evening, when we predict that Lappin's Hall will be filled to its utmost capacity.

Our citizens may be sure that there is a rich feast in store for them. Mrs. Matterson, one of the finest suprano singers of Chicago, is present and will take part in the concert.

It will be remembered that she was here last fall, and no person who heard her sing then, and who has the least appreciation of the "concert and harmony of sweet sounds" will fail to hear her again.

What the Slaves Think.—The St. Louis Democrat says the most tragic feature of the present southern agitation is the wide spread fear of slave insurrections. From the common epithet of "black," applied to the republican party, it is stated, negroes in some of the slave states have derived the impression that the black men of the north have obtained possession of the government, and are to inaugurate a policy of general emancipation of all the colored race.

As a matter of fact, no one is more directly responsible for the misapprehension in the south of the character and objects of the republican party than the democratic press of the north. To accomplish a party purpose they have habitually and knowingly misrepresented the republican party, and these misrepresentations have been received in full faith at the south, where republican papers are not allowed to circulate and where the utterance of republican sentiments is followed by expulsion from the state or mob violence. The very men who now in the north wish to be considered as "Union-savers," are the persons who have, to a great extent, caused the trouble that exists.

The Mississippi Frozen.—The Madison Patriot of yesterday says—"We have it on the authority of a conductor of a freight train on the M. & M. R. R. that the Mississippi river, which was open on last Friday at Prairie du Chien, was frozen over on Saturday so that teams were passing over it.—This appears a hard fact, especially when the main waters of the lakes in this vicinity are not yet covered with even a thin sheet of ice, but it is rendered probable by the water of the Mississippi being much shallower than that in our lakes, proper. It was also stated that the steamer Eagle was frozen in somewhere near Redwing."

Monetary.—The bills of two more of the Illinois banks were thrown out at Chicago on Monday—the Grayville Bank and the Southern Bank at Grayville.

The stock market was drooping in New York yesterday.

Missouri State Interest.—The Missouri Republican says: "The treasurer of this state publishes that he will be prepared to pay the interest falling due on all the Missouri state bonds on the 1st of January next. This is timely notice, we apprehend, for all those who have persistently sought to depreciate the credit of this state, without any good reason for it, and now let them hold their peace."

Banks thrown out in New York.—A slip from Adams's Chicago Bank Note Reporter says that the following banks are thrown out in New York:

Bank of Sing Sing, N. Y.
Bank of Commerce, Erie, Pa.
Bank of Crawford county, Pa.
Bank of Lawrence county, late Bank of Newcastle, Pa.
Bank of Upper Canada.

Price of Exchange.—In Milwaukee eastern exchange was raised to 5 per cent. last Monday. In Chicago, the same day, the price was 7 per cent. In St. Louis financial matters are almost as unsettled, and exchange as high as in Chicago.

Official State Canvass.

Madison, Nov. 27, 1860.

Editors Gazette:—Herewith I send you a synopsis of the result of the official canvass, made this day, by the state board of canvassers:

The total number of votes polled in this state on the 6th day of November was 152,180, of which

Lincoln electors received	86,110

Bell " "	161

Lincoln's majority over all,	20,040

This result I think will satisfy the most sanguine republican, as this state was, in the early part of the canvass, classified—if not for Douglas—as doubtful. The returns were in from every county in the state.—Winnebago, Kewaunee and Chippewa were received this morning, in season to be canvassed.

In the first congressional district the entire vote cast was 29,714.

Secession at Washington.

Washington, Nov. 24, 1860.

The state of feeling here can only be known by conversing with the leading citizens, and listening to the discussions of the influential and prominent business men of Washington. The few days that I have spent here have fully satisfied me that the dispatches which have filled the newspapers daily, and are sent from this city for the purpose of creating and keeping up an excitement, greatly exaggerate, and in most instances, misrepresent the feelings of the inhabitants of Washington. Aside from a few restless southern hot-spurs who are employed in the departments, and who are fearful of being dragged away from the teat they have been sucking with much relish for the last eight years, I have not yet found a single resident of this city who favors secession or disunion, or who does not condemn the course of the south, or admit that the election of Mr. Lincoln is legal or constitutional.

No one, either here or elsewhere, pretends that the republicans, as a party, have taken any steps, or even that they design inaugurating any measures to abolish slavery in the states or to interfere in any way with either the master or the slave in the states. True, unscrupulous members of the democratic party have made this gross charge against the republicans, but the only proof adduced is the libels of these malignant falsifiers, while against these absurd slanders stands the platform of the republican party and the recorded and oft-repeated opinions of Mr. Lincoln.

It is said by men here who know, that the states now threatening to withdraw from the Union are deeply in debt—that financially they are worse off than the west was in 1857, and that they have adopted this method as the readiest and surest way of paying their bills.

It is further alleged that the men in the south most clamorous to dissolve their connection with the Union, are advocates of the revival of the African slave trade, so that the price of slaves may be reduced, and they, like their neighbors, become owners of laborers. It must be remembered that at least eight-tenths of the voters of the south do not now own slaves, and hence their anxiety to level up, by a larger supply than the breeding states offer. To these men the owners of slaves yield, fearing their suffrages may be concentrated against them and their property be not only onerously taxed, but they themselves be swept from places of honor and profit.

Still, I am confident that there will be no secession. The only men who have really resigned are senator Hammond and representative Bonham, of South Carolina.—Neither Gov. Brown or Jeff. Davis, of Mississippi, have yet resigned. It is rumored here, to-day, that Mr. Keitt will refuse to retain his seat at the short session of the present Congress; but there are so many reports afloat here that no confidence can be placed in them.

The idea of South Carolina seceding alone is simply preposterous. With a population less than that of Brooklyn, she has not inhabitants enough to defend her borders from unfriendly incursions, much less to "conquer a peace." It has been truly said that "God makes nations, not man." Therefore the Palmetto State cannot become a nation. The friends of the Union are in the majority not only in all the border slave states, but, as time will show, all over the south. Virginians here, of acknowledged ability and ample means of information, unhesitatingly aver that of the whole vote given in that state at the recent Presidential election, all who voted for Bell and Douglas and two-thirds of those who voted for Breckinridge are opposed to secession for the mere reason of Mr. Lincoln's election.

There are but few members or senators here yet. The work on the Capitol is progressing finely. True to their instincts, and as ever faithful to their friends, the democrats in charge of the capitol extension are liberally patronizing their old friends. It is said that the mirrors that are now here and are designed for the Senate wing of the capitol, cost the snug little sum of $1,000,000! The other purchases are on the same scale of liberality; and the repairs in the House are of a high-priced character.

A Doubting Thomas.—Judge Douglas was in Mobile on Thursday last. The Advertiser tells what he thought of the result of the election. It says:

"The Judge places little confidence in the reported news from Illinois. He says it will take two or three days to hear from Egypt, where the great democratic strength lies. He is quite confident that both Illinois and Indiana have gone for him. We sincerely hope that he is correct in this."

His "confidence" will give way when he hears from "the land of Canaan, sweet Canaan." The darkness of Egypt could not save him.

Sure to make you come up to the scratch—The itch.

Telegraphic

Reported for the Daily Gazette.

By Wisconsin State Telegraph Line, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

New York, Nov. 28.

The Arabia with dates to the 18th, arrived at Halifax last evening.

The City of Washington was at Queenstown on the 16th.

Great Britain.—The Prince of Wales' fleet had arrived. Details of return voyage show that the fleet experienced head winds and bad weather during the entire voyage. The vessels were within a day's sail of England on the 6th, when a heavy gale prevented any further progress. They had only another week's provisions on board, and the royal party for the last few days lived on salt and preserved provisions.

The party landed all well, and the Prince reached Windsor Castle on the evening of the 15th.

The return of the Prince is made the theme of congratulatory editorials by the press generally, and the reiteration of warm compliments to the American people.

The Empress Eugenia arrived in London on the 14th inst., and remained two days in the strictest incognito. She will make a visit to Scotland in the hope of improving her health.

The Bishop of Worcester is dead.

The minimum rate of discount was raised by the Bank of England on the 15th to 6 per cent., although no gold had been drawn that day, and none since. This movement was telegraphed to the Bank of France, and the contemplated additional withdrawal of more gold from the Bank of England by that bank was suspended.

Australian gold to the amount of £576,000 arrived on the 16th, which was immediately bought for the Bank of France, and this temporarily prevented any further withdrawal from the Bank of England.

There was more confidence on Friday, and the funds slightly improved—closing firm. The discount market continued to present an anxious and unsettled appearance, and no business had been done below the bank minimum. In many cases 6 per cent. was the lowest rate that would be taken. Three months paper was not negotiable. The rate for short loans, government security, was about 4 per cent.

Paris advices say that although the pressure for gold on the Bank of France continued, that establishment had decided not to raise its rate of discount above 4½ per cent. for the present. It was thought the Bank of France would continue to obtain gold supplies from England, but the Times' city article maintains that this need excite no uneasiness, although the drain on the Bank of France, since the statement, is said to have been immense. The shares of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada realized 3 per cent. on the 10th.

France.—There were rumors of ministerial changes rife. It was reported that the commissioner who figured in the Savoy negotiations was to be minister of the interior. The commercial treaty of France and England was completed at Paris on the 16th and received final signatures. Mr. Cobden was said to be completely prostrated by labors.

Italy.—There was no event of importance. There was a report that a conspiracy had been discovered at Gaeta against Francis II. Two officers and two men were shot.

The official Piedmontese Gazette of the 15th says that the Neapolitans under Gen. Sabren had proposed to Fanto the surrender of the Neapolitan troops who remained outside of Gaeta, consisting of 10 battalions of chasseurs and rejected propositions. After a combat on the 12th the Bourbon troops re-entered Gaeta and the Sardinians took up fresh positions around the town. The garrison of Gaeta consisted of 18 battalions, but a despatch announces that two merchant steamers carrying French colors had left Gaeta with troops supposed for Civita.

Liverpool.—Breadstuffs had a declining tendency. R. S. & Co. report flour dull and offered at a reduction. Wheat dull and declined 1a2c.

Halifax, Nov. 27.

The following are the very latest advices by the Arabia.

London, Saturday eve., 27th.

The pressure for money has slightly relapsed.

Liverpool, Sunday, Nov. 18.—Breadstuffs quiet and unchanged. Provisions dull.

Austria.—An attempt has been made to introduce arms into Hungary. English vessels engaged in the enterprise. Austrian preparations for war continuing at Mantua.

China.—The Paris Moniteur asserts that the latest telegram from Sir Hope Grant fully authorises the hope that a recourse to arms will not be necessary in China.

Washington, Nov. 27.

The census bureau is in receipt of returns from all the states, South Carolina included. In a few scattered districts, however, the returns are withheld for correction. The returns from the territory of New Mexico are now on their way to Washington, and those from Utah and Kansas have only in part come to hand. In all cases, one excepted, laws have heretofore been passed to extend the time of taking the census. As to the present one, they have been made in a shorter period than ever before, but not in time to enable the secretary of the interior to communicate them to congress at the commencement of the session, with the enumeration of the inhabitants and the new representative apportionment.

The steam sloop of war Brooklyn is daily expected at Norfolk, with the Cherokee commissioners.

Among the latest arrivals of congressmen is Senator Davis, of Mississippi. Secretary Cobb was absent from the cabinet to-day, on account of sickness.

The President's annual message has been placed in the printer's hands.

New York, Nov. 28.

Counterfeit 10's on the Andover Bank of Massachusetts are in circulation.

New York, Nov. 28.

Several of our most prominent breadstuff dealers publish a statement showing stock, wheat and flour now on hand in this city.—Flour, 760,388 barrels; wheat, 5,853,749 bushels. They estimate the city consumption of flour at 550,000 to 650,000 barrels.

Charleston, Nov. 27.

All the South Carolina members of the federal house of representatives have determined to go to Washington and resign there. This course is taken in order more conveniently to confer with representatives from other southern states. The governor's message was sent to the legislature to-day. Its tenor was about the same as the synopsis sent yesterday in advance of delivery.

In relation to federal affairs he says it is now too late to receive propositions for a conference and the state would be wanting in self respect after having deliberately decided upon her course to entertain any proposition looking to a continuance in the present union.

Detroit, Nov. 28.

The Free Press this morning figures up sixty-seven lives lost on the lakes during the gale of Saturday and Sunday, and other vessels were out which have not yet been heard from.

Marine Disasters—Appalling Loss of Life.—The following memoranda of the disasters of the storm upon the Lakes on Sunday, have been compiled from various sources:

Propeller Decotah, Captain I. B. Cross, bound up with full cargo and double crew. Ashore twenty miles from Buffalo, all hands reported lost.

Propeller Forest Queen ashore and gone to pieces at Bailey harbor. Propeller Jersey City reported foundered near Buffalo. All hands lost.

Schooner Com. Maxwell ashore at Sugar Loaf Point. But one of the crew saved.

Schooner J. S. Newhouse is ashore near Goodrich, C. W. Schooner Sacramento ashore near Port Colborne. Schooner Tornado, with cargo of corn from Chicago, wrecked near Kingston Creek; all lost; vessel gone to pieces. Schooner Enterprise, ashore at Long Point. Schooner Arctic, ashore at Presque Isle. Schooner Schallawag, ashore near Port Stanley, gone to pieces. Schooner Con. Chase, of Chicago, and N. P. Goodell of Buffalo, were towed into the river Sarnia, completely covered with ice, with every man on the Goodell more or less frozen. Brig Curtiss Mann, from Chicago to Buffalo, ashore near Goderich, C. W., crew safe; vessel total loss.

From Lake Ontario.—Schooner Forest, frozen in near Trenton, in Bay Quinte.—Cascade driven to Sacketts Harbor, disabled, loaded with wheat. Jeannie P. Mack, ashore, cargo lost, 10 miles above Port Colborne, Lake Erie. Mary Levina, ashore, Clermont Bay, lumber. Schooner Comet, grain, from Youngstown, ashore near Big Sodus. Propeller Coaster, gone ashore eight miles below Stone Mills, Canada, gone to pieces. Schooner Augusta Handy, in South Bay, canvas and boat gone, and leaking badly. Seven vessels ashore between Kingston and Sackett's Harbor. Schooner Edith, of Oakville, beached one mile south of Stony Point light; no cargo. Schooner Omar Pasha, cargo wheat, from Toronto; both vessels went to pieces; crews saved except Omar Pasha.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

It is suggested that the telegraphic operators at Charleston dare not, for fear of jeopardizing their personal safety, send any thing but the most ultra secession reports to the north. Any developement of a counter sentiment by the telegraph, would be the signal of a funeral from the telegraph office.

A glutton at Oyster Point, Connecticut, ate a bushel of oysters, last week, as fast as an expert negro could open them.

To Clean the Eye of Dust.—When the eye is irritated by dust or intrusive articles of any kind, the sufferer invariably shuts and rubs his eyes, and not unfrequently the removal of the irritating cause becomes more difficult. The proper practice is to keep the eye open, as if staring; a sort of rotary movement of the ball takes place, the eye becomes covered with water, the particle is gradually impelled to the corner of the eye, and is there floated out, or can be easily removed, without any of the disagreeable consequences that attend shutting and rubbing.

To Keep Ice From Windows.—We find the following directions to keep the ice from show windows going the rounds: Take an ordinary paint brush or sponge, and rub over the glass once or twice a day a little alcohol, and it will keep the glass as free from ice as in the middle of summer, and will give as good a polish as can be got in any other way.

Outrage.—A captain of a ship at Mobile being heard to express his preference for Lincoln in that city a few days since, was ordered to leave the city immediately. In the north a disunionist or secessionist may blow until he is tired out. Such is the difference between liberty and slavery, one rejoices in the light of free discussion—the other fears, shuns and hates it.

The Nebraska legislature, at its next session, will stand three republican majority in the council, and eleven in the assembly, giving fourteen on joint ballot. This is much better than was at first expected.

So far as heard from, the new elected house of representatives of the Kansas territorial legislature, stands 26 republicans to 10 democrats. One or two districts remain to be heard from.

Jackson's Reconciliation with Benton.—But the most remarkable case of reconciliation was that which occurred between Gen. Jackson and Col. Thomas H. Benton, whose brother Jesse's bullet Gen. Jackson still carried about with him, embedded in the flesh of his left arm. "Well," exclaimed Col. Benton, in one of his letters of this period, "how many changes in this life! General Jackson is now sitting in the chair next to me. There was a vacant one next to me, and he took it for the session. Several senators saw our situation and offered mediation. I declined it upon the ground that what had happened could neither be explained, recanted nor denied.—After this we were put upon the same committee. Facing me one day, as we sat in our seats, he said to me, "Colonel, we are on the same committee; I will give you notice when it is necessary to attend." (He was chairman and had the right to summon us.) I answered, "General, make the time to suit yourself; it will be convenient for me to attend at any time." In committee we did business together just as other persons. After that, he asked me how my wife was, and I asked him how his was. Then he called and left his card at my lodgings—Andrew Jackson, for Colonel Benton and lady; forthwith I called at his and left mine—Colonel Benton, for General Jackson.—Since then we have dined together at several places, and yesterday at the President's. I made him the first bow; he held forth his hand, and we shook hands. I then introduced him to my wife, and thus civil relations are perfectly established between us. Jackson has gained since he has been here, by his mild and conciliatory manner."

Sold.—Under a foreclosure on the 2d mortgage bonds the Racine and Mississippi R. R. was formerly sold at action by Deputy Sheriff Taylor, the other day, to Jessup & Co., N. Y., for the sum of $210,000.—We suppose this auction, if it has any force at all, cuts off every cent of claims the old stockholders might have, and leaves them without redress.—Racine Advocate.

A Thanksgiving Song.

Come uncles and cousins, come nieces and aunts;
Come nephews and brothers,—no won'ts and no can'ts;
Put business, and shopping, and school books away;
The year has rolled round—it is Thanksgiving Day!

Come home from the college, ye ringlet haired youth;
Come home from your factories, Ann, Katy and Ruth!
From the anvil, the counter, the farm, come away;
Home, home with you, zounds—it is Thanksgiving Day.

The table is spread, and the dinner is dressed—
The cooks and the mothers have all done their best;
No caliph of Bagdad e'er saw such display,
Or dreamed of a treat like a Thanksgiving Day.

Pies, puddings, and custards, pigs, oysters and nuts;
Come forward and seize them, without ifs and buts;
Bring none of your slim little appetites here—
Thanksgiving Day comes only once in a year.

Now children revisit the darling old place;
Now brothers and sisters, long parted, embrace;
The family ring is united once more,
And the same voices shout at the old cottage door.

The grandfather smiles on the innocent mirth,
And blesses the Power that has guarded his hearth.
He remembers no trouble—he feels no decay—
He thinks his whole life has been a Thanksgiving Day.

The praise for the past and the present we sing,
And trustful await what the future may bring;
Let doubt and repining be banished away,
And the whole of our life be a Thanksging Day.

PROCLAMATION.

THANKSGIVING.

It is right that all Christian nations should praise the Ruler of the Universe for His wonderful goodness to the children of men.

It is eminently proper that the people of this country should praise Him, for they are favored above all others, in their form of government, devised, under God, by the wisdom of their forefathers—in freedom to do all things that are right—in health, peace, prosperity—in a wonderful process of development which has already placed them in the foremost rank of the nations of the world.

The people of Wisconsin have extraordinary reasons for thankfulness the present year. The peaceful labors of the husbandmen have been blessed in a most remarkable degree, and their barns and storehouses are overflowing with the abundance of the harvest. Surely, "He findeth them with the finest of the wheat." Health has prevailed throughout our borders. Good order has everywhere reigned. The blessings of free education have been extended. All classes and professions have pursued their avocations with greater or less measure of success, under the protection of just and equal laws If afflictions have come upon, or calamities overtaken us, the benign influences of Christian benevolence have hastened to dry the tears and minister to the wants of the bereaved.

Following time-honored custom, it is my privilege again to invite the people of Wisconsin to the observance of their annual festival of joy and gladness, and I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 29th day of November, 1860, as a day of THANKSGIVING and praise to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe.

And I recommend that the people of the state, on that day, laying aside the cares of life, gather together in their solemn assemblies, and in manner and form approved by their consciences, return their thanks to God for His great goodness to us as citizens of a country blessed, beyond others, with civil and religious Liberty, Educational Institutions, Peace and Prosperity; and especially for His overflowing blessings to the people of this Commonwealth, in Abundant Harvests, Health, Social Comforts and Privileges, and for all that contributes to their happiness and well-being as communities and individuals.

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless his name."

When the feast is spread, and the table groans with fatness, let not the poor be forgotten, nor any man found begging bread.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my [L. S.] name, and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed.

Done at Madison, the 29th day of October, A. D. 1860

By the Governor, ALEX. W. RANDALL.

EDWARD ILLSLEY, Asst. Sec'y of State.

Post Office Notice.

THANKSGIVING.—This office will close on Thanksgiving Day, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and open again at 4 o'clock, P. M.

E. MILLER, P. M.

Janesville, Nov. 28, 1860.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES ON THANKSGIVING-DAY.—Trinity church will be opened for morning service at 10½ o'clock, with a sermon by the Rector, Rev. H. W. Beers.

CITY TAXES.—An important question in relation to our city tax was argued in the circuit court, before Judge Noggle, this morning. On the application for a decree upon the delinquent list, J. H. Knowlton, on behalf of A. Hyatt Smith and several others, resisted the application, assigning an insufficiency of the notice of application, and objecting to the legality of the tax on the grounds that certain railroad property was excepted from taxation, and that the provisions of the city charter were violated in raising the full amount allowed to the school fund in addition to the school orders put into judgment. The notice of application was published on the 16th inst., and it is contended that the law requires ten days notice, excluding both the day of publication and the first day of the term of court. Isaac Woodle, as city attorney, appeared for the city, denying the validity of the objections raised to the application. After argument, Judge N. reserved his decision, in order to allow the city attorney time to submit some authorities in the case.

NEW FAMILY GROCERY.—Mr. William Andrew has taken the store formerly occupied by Mr. Thurston on Main street, where he will keep a choice selection of family groceries and fruits. Mr. Andrew's long experience in the trade will eneble him to furnish good articles to his customers at a fair price. We bespeak for him a share of public patronage.

☞ The store of Scofield & Co. will be closed to-morrow 29th inst. from 9½ o'clock A. M. till 6 P. M.

SHIPMENTS FROM BRODHEAD.—During the month of October 39,101 bushels of wheat were shipped from Broadhead.

MECHANICS INSTITUTE.—There will be a meeting of the members of the Mechanics Institute on Friday evening Nov. 30, 7½ o'clock, at the office of H. N. Comstock Esq. A full attendance is requested.

By order,

IRA MILTIMORE, Pres.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Office hours to-morrow (Thanksgiving day) from 8 to 11 A. M.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.—There will be no paper issued from this office to-morrow.

VARIETY STORE.—Almost every body in Rock county knows V. Jouanneault, or "the Frenchman" as he is familiarly called, who keeps a store in the Hyatt House block, where "every thing" can be had. He has recently been adding to his stock of toys and fancy goods, preparatory to the great rush for presents during the holidays. His store has become one of the "institutions" of the city, and is overflowing with nearly all sorts of goods, for old and young. Give him a call, and you will be sure to find something that you or the "little folks at home" will want.

A DOG PANIC.—They are having a mad dog panic at Waukau. Last week several cows and hogs were bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, and some of the animals have since shown unmistakeable signs of hydrophobia. The people of Waukau have slaughtered all the dogs in the place.—Ripon Times.

A GRAVE JOKE.—H. M. Ridenhower, Esq. the "lone star" of Johnson county, Illinois, in 1856—the only man in the county who voted for Fremont—has just been elected coroner of the county by forty votes—the democracy forgetting to vote for that office. A correspondent informs us that this result exasperates the Douglasites of old Johnson worse than the election of Lincoln. We understand that Ridenhower proposes to hold his first inquest on the remains of democracy in Illinois.—Chicago Tribune.

ALL KINDS OF JUSTICE'S BLANKS For Sale at this Office.

An Admirable Exhibition.

Next Friday and Saturday evening, and Saturday afternoon, there will be exhibited at Lappin's Hall, Waugh's Mirror of Italy—a panorama embracing over two hundred views of the Lakes, Cities, fine Palaces and Cathedrals, of northern, central and southern Italy, and including a view of an eruption of Vesuvius. As Italy has been and is now the centre of political interest in Europe, the exhibition of this Panorama is especially timely, as it illustrates the theatre of the late Franco-Sardinian campaign. As a work of art, it has received very high praise. Elihu Burritt, the "learned Blacksmith," says—"We have seen a good many panoramas and dioramas in England, France and Germany, but we never saw anything equaling Waugh's gorgeous world of temples, churches, baths, fountains, monuments, cascades, the "sheen of silver waters," the red and quivering glare of volcanoes, fleets of ships on the sea, gondolas, and picturesque populations, costumes and customs. As a work of art, nothing of the kind exhibited in London comes up to it. Albert Smith's tour through Holland, up the Rhine, and his view of Mount Blanc, are lame in artistry and contracted in extent, compared with these apparently life-size painting of Italian description." John Neal, the author, says "there are scenes in this panorama to which words can do no justice. The glorious coloring of earth and sky, the wondrous blending of tints, which makes an Italian sunset so beautiful, must be seen to be appreciated.—Through two hundred chosen views—through northern, southern and central Italy, from Como on through Venice,—the spectator is led by magic charm to St. Peter's, to Naples and Vesuvius."

The editor of the Utica Herald, who has just returned from a visit to Italy, fully endorses the correctness of Waugh's paintings. He says—"It affords us great pleasure to bear testimony to the fidelity of the scenes depicted to nature. Nothing can be more graphic—nothing can be more true to the life. The splendid Panorama of Italian scenery and Italian life is made to move before the eyes of delighted spectators. The memorable objects of interest—Pisa, with its leaning tower; Florence, with its incomparable environs; Rome, with its majestic ruins, and splendid palaces and churches; Naples, with its lovely bay and enchanting surroundings; Vesuvius, and Pompeii, and Herculaneum—are represented with remarkable success." From such recommendations as these, we are led to expect a pleasant and profitable hour is following the artist in his Italian tour. For the afternoon exhibition, the doors will be opened at two o'clock, and the panorama move at three. For the evening exhibitions, the doors will open at seven and the panorama move at eight o'clock.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY

BUMP & GRAY,

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, NOVEMBER 28, 1860.

Receipt of Wheat were still larger to-day than yesterday, there being fully 5,000 bushels on the market, and milling grades, owing to the large supply, were 3a5 cents lower. Shipping spring, however, was firm at yesterday's full rates. The market closed with good demand at 68a70c for good to very choice milling spring, and 62½a67c for shipping. Barley is extremely dull.—We notice sales of choice samples to-day at 35a50c, and common as low as 20c. Dressed Hogs came forward finely, and prices were if anything a little lower than yesterday. Sales of about 100 head at 5,15a5,50 for heavy to extra heavy, and 4,25a5,00 for light. No change in other produce.

The latest advices from the lake shore, eastern and foreign markets were rather unfavorable, but it seems to produce but little effect in our markets, as most if not all of the operators are buying for winter storage. The probability is that prices will not vary much from present rates during the winter.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—good to choice milling spring 68a70; fair to good dry shipping 62½a67; damp and grown 55a60.

OATS—rather dull at 15a17c per bushel.

RYE—declined to 33a35c per 60 lbs.

CORN—old shelled 30a32c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

BARLEY—good quality 30a35c per 50 lbs., common 20a25c.

TIMOTHY SEED—in good demand at 1,60a1,80 per 46 lbs.

DRESSED HOGS—heavy to extra heavy 5,15a5,50, light 4,25a5,00.

POTATOES—plenty at 15a20c for good to choice ones.

BUTTER—wanted at 15a17c good to choice quality.

EGGS—scarce at 12a13c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 4½a5; Dry, flint, 9a11.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 6½a7; chickens, 5a6

SHEEP PELTS—range from 25c@1,00 each.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PROCLAMATION.

THANKSGIVING.

It is right that all Christian nations should praise the Ruler of the Universe for His wonderful goodness to the children of men.

It is eminently proper that the people of this country should praise Him, for they are favored above all others, in their form of government, devised, under God, by the wisdom of their forefathers—in freedom to do all things that are right—in health, peace, prosperity—in a wonderful process of development which has already placed them in the foremost rank of the nations of the world.

The people of Wisconsin have extraordinary reasons for thankfulness the present year. The peaceful labors of the husbandman have been blessed in a most remarkable degree, and their barns and storehouses are overflowing with the abundance of the harvest. Surely, "He findeth them with the finest of the wheat." Health has prevailed throughout our borders. Good order has everywhere reigned. The blessings of free education have been extended. All classes and professions have pursued their avocations with greater or less measure of success, under the protection of just and equal laws If afflictions have come upon, or calamities overtaken us, the benign influences of Christian benevolence have hastened to dry the tears and minister to the wants of the bereaved.

Following time-honored custom, it is my privilege again to invite the people of Wisconsin to the observance of their annual festival of joy and gladness, and I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 29th day of November, 1860, as a day of THANKSGIVING and praise to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe.

And I recommend that the people of the state, on that day, laying aside the cares of life, gather together in their solemn assemblies, and in manner and form approved by their consciences, return their thanks to God for His great goodness to us as citizens of a country blessed, beyond others, with civil and religious Liberty, Educational Institutions, Peace and Prosperity; and especially for His overflowing blessings to the people of this Commonwealth, in Abundant Harvests, Health, Social Comforts and Privileges, and for all that contributes to their happiness and well being as communities and individuals

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless his name."

When the feast is spread, and the table groans with fatness, let not the poor be forgotten, nor any man found begging bread.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my [L. S.] name, and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed.

Done at Madison, the 29th day of October, A. D 1860

By the Governor, ALEX. W. RANDALL.

Post Office Notice.

THANKSGIVING.—This office will close on Thanksgiving Day, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and open again at 4 o'clock, P. M.

Janesville, Nov. 28, 1860.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES ON THANKSGIVING-DAY.—Trinity church will be opened for morning service at 10½ o'clock, with a sermon by the Rector, Rev. H. W. Beers.

CITY TAXES.—An important question in relation to our city tax was argued in the circuit court, before Judge Noggle, this morning. On the application for a decree upon the delinquent list, J. H. Knowlton, on behalf of A. Hyatt Smith and several others, resisted the application, assigning an insufficiency of the notice of application, and objecting to the legality of the tax on the grounds that certain railroad property was excepted from taxation, and that the provisions of the city charter were violated in raising the full amount allowed to the school fund in addition to the school orders put into judgment. The notice of application was published on the 16th inst., and it is contended that the law requires ten days notice, excluding both the day of publication and the first day of the term of court. Isaac Woodie, as city attorney, appeared for the city, denying the validity of the objections raised to the application. After argument, Judge N. reserved his decision, in order to allow the city attorney time to submit some authorities in the case.

NEW FAMILY GROCERY.—Mr. William Andrew has taken the store formerly occupied by Mr. Thurston on Main street, where he will keep a choice selection of family groceries and fruits. Mr. Andrew's long experience in the trade will eneble him to furnish good articles to his customers at a fair price. We bespeak for him a share of public patronage.

☞ The store of Scofield & Co. will be closed to-morrow 29th inst. from 9½ o'clock A. M. till 6 P. M.

SHIPMENTS FROM BRODHEAD.—During the month of October 39,101 bushels of wheat were shipped from Broadhead.

MECHANICS INSTITUTE.—There will be a meeting of the members of the Mechanics Institute on Friday evening Nov. 30, 7½ o'clock, at the office of H. N. Comstock Esq. A full attendance is requested.

By order,

IRA MILTIMORE, Pres.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Office hours to-morrow (Thanksgiving day) from 8 to 11 A. M.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.—There will be no paper issued from this office to-morrow.

VARIETY STORE.—Almost every body in Rock county knows V. Jouanneault, or "the Frenchman" as he is familiarly called, who keeps a store in the Hyatt House block, where "every thing" can be had. He has recently been adding to his stock of toys and fancy goods, preparatory to the great rush for presents during the holidays. His store has become one of the "institutions" of the city, and is overflowing with nearly all sorts of goods, for old and young. Give him a call, and you will be sure to find something that you or the "little folks at home" will want.

A DOG PANIC.—They are having a mad dog panic at Waukau. Last week several cows and hogs were bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, and some of the animals have since shown unmistakeable signs of hydrophobia. The people of Waukau have slaughtered all the dogs in the place.—Ripon Times.

A GRAVE JOKE.—H. M. Ridenhower, Esq. the "lone star" of Johnson county, Illinois, in 1856—the only man in the county who voted for Fremont—has just been elected coroner of the county by forty votes—the democracy forgetting to vote for that office. A correspondent informs us that this result exasperates the Douglasites of old Johnson worse than the election of Lincoln. We understand that Ridenhower proposes to hold his first inquest on the remains of democracy in Illinois.—Chicago Tribune.

ALL KINDS OF JUSTICE'S BLANKS For Sale at this Office.

An Admirable Exhibition.

Next Friday and Saturday evening, and Saturday afternoon, there will be exhibited at Lappin's Hall, Waugh's Mirror of Italy—a panorama embracing over two hundred views of the Lakes, Cities, fine Palaces and Cathedrals, of northern, central and southern Italy, and including a view of an eruption of Vesuvius. As Italy has been and is now the centre of political interest in Europe, the exhibition of this Panorama is especially timely, as it illustrates the theatre of the late Franco-Sardinian campaign. As a work of art, it has received very high praise. Elihu Burritt, the "learned Blacksmith," says:—"We have seen a good many panoramas and dioramas in England, France and Germany, but we never saw anything equaling Waugh's gorgeous world of temples, churches, baths, fountains, monuments, cascades, the "sheen of silver waters," the red and quivering glare of volcanoes, fleets of ships on the sea, gondolas, and picturesque populations, costumes and customs. As a work of art, nothing of the kind exhibited in London comes up to it. Albert Smith's tour through Holland, up the Rhine, and his view of Mount Blanc, are lame in artistry and contracted in extent, compared with these apparently life-size painting of Italian description." John Neal, the author, says "there are scenes in this panorama to which words can do no justice. The glorious coloring of earth and sky, the wondrous blending of tints, which makes an Italian sunset so beautiful, must be seen to be appreciated.—Through two hundred chosen views—through northern, southern and central Italy, from Como on through Venice,—the spectator is led by magic charm to St. Peter's, to Naples and Vesuvius."

The editor of the Utica Herald, who has just returned from a visit to Italy, fully endorses the correctness of Waugh's paintings. He says—"It affords us great pleasure to bear testimony to the fidelity of the scenes depicted to nature. Nothing can be more graphic—nothing can be more true to the life. The splendid Panorama of Italian scenery and Italian life is made to move before the eyes of delighted spectators. The memorable objects of interest—Pisa, with its leaning tower; Florence, with its incomparable environs; Rome, with its majestic ruins, and splendid palaces and churches; Naples, with its lovely bay and enchanting surroundings; Vesuvius, and Pompeii, and Herculaneum—are represented with remarkable success." From such recommendations as these, we are led to expect a pleasant and profitable hour is following the artist in his Italian tour. For the afternoon exhibition, the doors will be opened at two o'clock, and the panorama move at three. For the evening exhibitions, the doors will open at seven and the panorama move at eight o'clock.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, NOVEMBER 28, 1860.

Receipts of Wheat were still larger to-day than yesterday, there being fully 5 000 bushels on the market, and milling grades, owing to the large supply, were 3a5 cents lower. Shipping spring, however, was firm at yesterday's full rates. The market closed with good demand at 68a70c for good to very choice milling spring, and 62½a67c for shipping. Barley is extremely dull.—We notice sales of choice samples to-day at 35a50c, and common as low as 20c. Dressed Hogs came forward finely, and prices were if anything a little lower than yesterday. Sales of about 100 head at 5,15a5,80 for heavy to extra heavy, and 4 25a5 00 for light. No change in other produce

The latest advices from the lake shore, eastern and foreign markets were rather unfavorable, but it seems to produce but little effect in our markets, as most if not all of the operators are buying for winter storage. The probability is that prices will not vary much from present rates during the winter.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—good to choice milling spring 68a70; fair to good dry shipping 52½a57; damp and grown 55a60.

OATS—rather dull at 15a17c per bushel.

RYE—declined to 33a35c per 56 lbs

CORN—old shelled 30a32c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

BARLEY—good quality 30a35c per 50 lbs, common 20a25c.

TIMOTHY SEED—in good demand at 1,60a1,80 per 46 lbs.

DRESSED HOGS—heavy to extra heavy 5,15a5,50, light 4,25a5,00.

POTATOES—plenty at 15a20c for good to choice ones.

BUTTER—wanted at 15a17c good to choice quality.

EGGS—scarce at 12a13c per dozen

HIDES—Green, 4½a5; Dry, flint, 9a11.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 6½a7; chickens, 5a8

SHEEP PELTS—range from 25c@1,00 each.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Anaemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper.—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and give me the pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is your headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists.—Call for Cephalic Pills. I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headache will soon vanish away like snow in July.

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

Cephalic Pills
CURE
Sick Headache!
CURE
Nervous Headache
CURE
All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the 'apothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper.—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be after knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relaved her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and give me the pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is your headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists.—Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headache will soon vanish away like snow in July.

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

Cephalic Pills CURE Sick Headache! CURE Nervous Headache CURE All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent Invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

W. F. & A. W. GREELEY, Proprietors, No. 26 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.
